Communication In Community The Christian Witness In Cultural Context:

Communication in Community Stanley R. Dyer, 2013 Global Arts and Christian Witness (Mission in Global Community) Roberta R. King, 2019-07-16 Veteran missionary scholar Roberta King draws on a lifetime of study and firsthand mission experience to show how witness through contextualized global arts can dynamically reveal Christ to all peoples King offers the global church biblical foundations historical pathways theoretical frameworks and effective practices for communicating Christ through the arts in diverse contexts Supplemented with stories from the field illustrations and discussion questions this textbook offers innovative and dynamic approaches essential for doing mission in transformative ways through the arts It also features a full color insert of artwork discussed in the book Becoming the People of God Paul H. De Neui, 2015-06-01 How do Christ followers celebrate unity in the midst of diversity How do we become the people of God in more than name only A unifying Christ centeredness demands living out kingdom values and bearing witness to transformation in and through a multitude of cultural manifestations We struggle to serve worship and witness in the midst of this age old challenge This collection of perspectives comes from settings where the good news of Jesus has not been the dominant historical norm All contributors in this volume are practitioners They have a deep appreciation for the cultural heritage and important moral values found in Buddhist contexts We believe these chapters hold valuable lessons that speak to all of the family of faith Here you will find a wide range of topics and approaches that address what it means to become the global body of believers These can speak to you wherever you are called to participate with God's work in the world Christ followers are in the process of becoming what will one day culminate in a huge and startling celebration of people from all of God's beloved creation If you are interested in hearing from those discovering what that might look like outside traditional packaging this book is for you The Public Forum and Christian Ethics Robert Gascoigne, 2001 This book addresses the question of the communication of Christian ethics in the public forum of liberal pluralist societies Drawing on debates in philosophy theology and sociological theory it relates the problem of communication to fundamental questions about the nature of liberal societies and the identity of Christian faith and the Christian community With particular emphasis on Kantian and neo Kantian ethics it explores the link between autonomy and community in liberal societies The theology of communio expressed in revealed Christian traditions can reconcile autonomy and community Any Christian attempt to communicate this vision must also reflect on Christianity's own identity especially the ways in which its own self consciousness grows in critical interaction with secularity In this light Christian ethical communication is both a witness to a distinctive identity founded in the revelation of the triune God and a vision of universal human solidarity which can reconcile autonomy and community Christian Witness in Pluralistic Contexts in the Twenty-First Century Enoch Wan, 2004-09-15 This volume is not a set of textbook answers on how to witness to Hindus Buddhists Muslims and people with other religions based on simple formulas It is the wrestlings affirmations and testimonies of those who have been deeply involved in ministries to people of other religious faiths and have thought deeply about the issues religious pluralism raises Paul G Hiebert Professor Emeritus Trinity Evangelical Divinity School The Oxford Handbook of Mission Studies Kirsteen Kim, Knud Jørgensen, Alison Fitchett-Climenhaga, 2022-04-18 The Oxford Handbook of Mission Studies represents more than a century of scholarship related to the theology history and methodology of the propagation of Christian faith and the engagement of Christians with cultures religions and societies worldwide It contains more than 40 articles by experts from different disciplinary and ecclesial perspectives who are from all continents It not only offers a broad overview of key approaches and issues in mission studies but it also highlights current trends and suggests future developments The Handbook builds on renewed interest in mission studies this century generated by recent key statements on mission from ecumenical evangelical Catholic and Orthodox sources and by a spate of academic works on the topic Western church leaders now apply insights from foreign missions such as inculturation liberation interfaith work and power encounter to today s multicultural societies Meanwhile there are new initiatives in mission from the Majority World where most Christians live so that sending is not only from the west to the rest but from everywhere to everywhere Therefore this volume aims to reflect the voices of the receivers of mission as well as its protagonists and to raise awareness of new movements In a time of growing recognition of religions more generally this work examines and theorizes the missional dimensions of the world s largest religion its agendas growth outreach role in public life effect on cultures relevance for development and its approaches to other communities The Art of Dialogue Ineke de Feijter, 2007 Media and culture are deeply intertwined in contemporary society Religions have problems relating to this media culture which is shaped by media processes and conditioned by digital media and interactive forms of communication Media set the agenda and they profoundly challenge religions both with respect to their public communication and their very existence and public relevance People increasingly use media for shaping their religious identity and their search with respect to questions of ultimate meaning Barely any theological studies exist that reflect on religious policies and their subsequent praxis in the field of communication The author analyzes Christian policy views and identifies the main problems and opportunities in relating to media culture

Dictionary of Mission Karl Muller, Theo Sundermeier, Stephen B. Bevans, Richard H. Bliese, 2006-01-30 Conceived and developed by two of Europe s most eminent missiologists in the country where the scientific and sustained study of mission first took shape the Dictionary of Mission represents the finest of the chorus of voices that comprise contemporary missiology The choice of topics and the authors to address them reflects what Christian mission has become a genuinely worldwide and ecumenical phenomenon That there would be entries on regional theological developments is indicative of how the world church is developing A host of other topics here explored show too how the landscape of mission is changing Taken as a whole then the Dictionary of Mission is a road map through this exciting and challenging terrain from the Foreword

Christian Witness Through Small Christian Communities Terese Josephine Zemale, 1992 The Arts as Witness in Multifaith Contexts Roberta R. King, William A. Dyrness, 2019-11-05 In search of holistic Christian witness we must cultivate new approaches for integrating the arts into mission praxis Written by missiologists art critics ethnodoxologists and theologians from around the world these essays present historical and contemporary case studies while calling Christians to understand the power of art for expressing cultural and religious identity opening spaces for transformative encounters and resisting injustice
