The Abundant Community John McKnight, Peter Block, 2011-01-19 Copublished with the American Planning Association Reveals the invisible but immense impact that consumerism has had on the fabric of our families and communities Recommends how we can create richer more fulfilling lives and break our dependency on the consumer economy This book is about a new possibility for us together to discover the real basis for a satisfying life It is a life that becomes possible when we join our neighbors in creating a community that nurtures our family and makes us useful citizens We are besieged by messages from consumer society telling us that we are insufficient that we must purchase what we need from specialists and systems outside the community We outsource our health care child care relationships recreation our safety and our satisfaction We are trained to become consumers and clients not citizens and neighbors McKnight and Block take a thoughtful look at how this situation came about what maintains it and the crippling effect it has had on our families our communities and our environment Right in our neighborhood we have the capacity to address our human needs in ways that systems which see us only as interchangeable units as problems to be solved never can We all have gifts to offer even the most seemingly marginal among us It does not matter how rich or poor the neighborhood is McKnight and Block suggest how to nurture voluntary self organizing structures that will reveal these gifts and allow them to be shared to the greatest mutual benefit They recommend roles we can assume and actions we can take to reweave the social fabric that has been unraveled by consumerism and its belief that however much we have it is not enough

Channel Kindness Born this Way Foundation, Lady Gaga, 2020-09-22 A New York Times Bestseller For Lady Gaga kindness is the driving force behind everything she says and does The quiet power of kindness can change the way we view one another our communities and even ourselves She embodies this mission and through her work brings more kindness into our world every single day Lady Gaga has always believed in the importance of being yourself being kind to yourself and being kind to others no matter who they are or where they come from With that sentiment in mind she and her mother Cynthia Germanotta founded Born This Way Foundation a nonprofit organization dedicated to making the world a kinder and braver place Through the years they've collected stories of kindness bravery and resilience from young people all over the world proving that kindness truly is the universal language And now we invite you to read these stories and follow along as each and every young author finds their voice just as Lady Gaga has found hers Within these pages you'll meet young changemakers who found their inner strength who prevailed in the face of bullies who started their own social movements who decided to break through the mental health stigma and share how they felt who created safe spaces for LGBTQ youth and who have embraced kindness with every fiber of their being by helping others without the expectation of anything in return In one story you'll read about a young person with an autoimmune disease who after being bullied at school learned how to practice self love and started an organization with the mission of educating others about the importance of self love too and in another story you ll meet a young person who decided to start a movement to help eliminate the stigma surrounding mental health and encouraged others to talk about their feelings openly and honestly a reminder that kindness and mental wellness go hand in hand Not only were we moved by these individual acts of kindness but we were also touched by the many stories of organizations neighborhoods and entire communities that fully dedicated themselves to helping those in need and found new innovative ways to make our world a kinder and braver place Individually and collectively these stories prove that kindness not only saves lives but builds community Kindness is inclusion it is pride it is empathy it is compassion it is self respect and it is the guiding light to love Kindness is always transformational and its never ending ripples result in even more kind acts that can change our lives our communities and our world Abundant Community John McKnight,2008-09-13 We need our neighbors and community to stay healthy produce jobs raise our children and care for those on the margin Institutions and professional services have reached their limit of their ability to help us The consumer society tells us that we are insufficient and that we must purchase what we need from specialists and systems outside the community We have become consumers and clients not citizens and neighbors John McKnight and Peter Block show that we have the capacity to find real and sustainable satisfaction right in our neighborhood and community This book reports on voluntary self organizing structures that focus on gifts and value hospitality the welcoming of strangers It shows how to reweave our social fabric especially in our neighborhoods In this way we collectively have enough to create a future that works for all Stories of Sacred Love: Tales of Compassion, Courage, and Community Silas
