FINALIST FOR THE LOCUS AWARD As the ash and chaos from Mount Rainier's eruption swirled and finally settled the story of the Greenloop massacre has passed unnoticed unexamined until now The journals of resident Kate Holland recovered from the town's bloody wreckage capture a tale too harrowing and too earth shattering in its implications to be forgotten In these pages Max Brooks brings Kate's extraordinary account to light for the first time faithfully reproducing her words alongside his own extensive investigations into the massacre and the legendary beasts behind it Kate's is a tale of unexpected strength and resilience of humanity's defiance in the face of a terrible predator's gaze and inevitably of savagery and death Yet it is also far more than that Because if what Kate Holland saw in those days is real then we must accept the impossible We must accept that the creature known as Bigfoot walks among us and that it is a beast of terrible strength and ferocity Part survival narrative part bloody horror tale part scientific journey into the boundaries between truth and fiction this is a Bigfoot story as only Max Brooks could chronicle it and like none you've ever read before
