Customized Schooling Frederick M. Hess,2011 This ambitious book aims to reorient discussions about school reform by moving away from whole school solutions to customized services and products The book surveys the current landscape of customized entrepreneurial activity in education looks closely at particular

A volume that is both far ranging and insistently pragmatic, Customized Schooling aims to spur fresh thoughts about the scope and nature of promising education reforms and to open up strikingly new possibilities for entrepreneurial activity in today's schools. Customized Schooling is a volume in the Educational Innovations series.

Customized Schooling dares the reader to look at what schooling could be like if we end our reliance on the one stop shop schoolhouse. Alongside a score of policy leaders, esteemed researchers, and on the ground practitioners, Hess and Manno lay out the case for individualizing education so that student, teacher, and district demands are heard and followed. What are the contours of such a system? How will it handle financial data and accountability concerns? And how will we listen more effectively to the wants of education customers? This volume provides fuel for the crucial discussion of these and other questions.

Clayton M. Christensen, Robert and Jane Cizik Professor of Business Administration, Harvard Business School; Rick Hess and Bruno Manno argue that contemporary education is an anachronism in today's world of specialized services. The book persuasively puts forth a strong rationale for abandoning past practices and provides a compendium of cutting edge innovations and innovators.
