Closing the Chart Steven D. Hsi, 2004-04-30 Dr Steven D Hsi a family physician and father of two young sons was diagnosed in 1995 with a rare coronary disease that caused his death five years later at the age of forty four Throughout his ordeals as a patient including three open heart surgeries Dr Hsi s outlook on the teaching and practice of medicine changed In 1997 he began a journal intended for publication after his death Written with the assistance of newspaper columnist Jim Belshaw and completed posthumously by Hsi s widow Beth Corbin Hsi Dr Hsi s writings urge his colleagues to become healers to look at their patients as human beings with spiritual as well as physical lives Every patient should read it if only to be made aware that they are not alone with their thoughts Every spouse of a patient should read it Every medical student and physician should read it to learn that the biology of the disease is really just a small part of the illness John Saiki M D Medical Oncology University of New Mexico Dr Steven Hsi asks his fellow doctors to be more than physicians He asks them to be healers He says that when he thinks of healers he sees traditional medicine men people who are integral parts of their communities They are in touch physically and spiritually with the people they serve Tony Hillerman Closing the Chart is built on the personal journals and experiences of Steven D Hsi M D as he travels on an intense 5 year journey from an assumption of health professional success and family stability to his progressive illness and eventual death Closing the Chart is both an engaging page turning read and a story told with so little artifice that you cannot close the cover unchanged Kenneth Jacobson executive director American Holistic Medical Association Explore There are lessons on every page lessons to make us better caregivers more discerning patients and better advocates for family members and friends who are sick Every reader will take away different lessons from this book based on his or her role age and experience This would be an ideal book for group study by medical and nursing students with some senior physicians patients and family members What a great learning experience for all participants I exhort you to pick up and read this humble story Nothing I have encountered in the medical narrative genre has been more worthy of my time David J Elpern M D Psychiatric Services Closing the Chart Steven D. Hsi, Jim Belshaw, Beth Corbin-Hsi, 2008 Closing the Chart Steven D. Hsi, 2004 Dr Hsi was diagnosed in 1995 with a rare coronary disease that caused his death five years later at the age of 44 In 1997 he began a journal completed posthumously by journalist Belshaw and Hsi s wife Corbin that chronicled his changing outlook on the teaching and practice of medicine McWhinney's Textbook of Family Medicine, 2016-02-05 McWhinney s Textbook of Family Medicine is one of the seminal texts in the field defining the principles and practices of family medicine as a distinct field of practice The fourth edition presents new information on stewardship of resources patient information and data delivery of care in the home and consultation and referral as well as six new clinical chapters of common problems in family medicine Life's Last Gift Charles Garfield, 2017-10-02 An indispensable compassionate end of life resource After four decades of training volunteers to offer comfort at the bedsides of the dying psychologist and Shanti Project founder Charles Garfield has created an essential guide for friends family and healthcare professionals who want to ease someone s final days but don t know how to begin Dr Garfield presents practical advice about finding connection honesty and peace while being of the greatest service to those at the end of life By focusing on the reciprocal and healing relationships between the living and the dying which continues until the last breath he offers a path toward clarity and wholeness and even growth Life s Last Gift is an emotional lifeline for anyone who feels lost and filled with grief during this final stage of life Medical Humanities Thomas R. Cole,Nathan S. Carlin,Ronald A. Carson,2015 This textbook uses concepts and methods of the humanities to enhance understanding of medicine and health care At the Edge of Being: The Aporia of Pain Heather McKenzie,John Quintner,Gillian Bendelow,2020-10-12 Lubkin's Chronic Illness: Impact and Intervention Pamala D. Larsen,2021-10-29 Lubkin s Chronic Illness Impact an Intervention Eleventh Edition provides a solid foundation for nursing students by teaching them the skills and knowledge they need to care for patients experiencing illness Lubkin's Chronic Illness Larsen,2017-12-01 Lubkin s Chronic Illness Tenth Edition is an essential text for nursing students who seek to understand the various aspects of chronic Illness affecting both patients and families Important Notice The digital edition of this book is missing some of the images or content found in the physical edition Living in Limbo Donald Capps,Nathan Carlin,2010-09-01 Limbo has traditionally been viewed as a place between heaven on the one hand and purgatory and hell on the other to which the patriarchs who lived under the old law and babies who died before being baptized into the Christian faith have been consigned Like purgatory it is a dark place but not deprived of grace Now that the Roman Catholic Church has declared that limbo is not an official church teaching the idea of limbo has been freed from ecclesiastical constraints and available for reflection on the human condition on this side of the grave Living in Limbo by Donald Capps and Nathan Carlin focuses on the acute limbo situations that are an integral part of human life including the vicissitudes of growing up of forming committed relationships of finding employment and staying employed of undergoing life threatening illnesses and of experiencing dislocation and doubt Using cases and examples of real life persons the book identifies the forms of distress likely to occur throughout the duration of the limbo experience and it also identifies the internal and external resources that individuals draw upon as they cope with the stresses and uncertainties of living in limbo Drawing on the traditional view especially reflected in Christian art that Christ descends into limbo to comfort and liberate its occupants Living in Limbo comes down on the side of hope versus despair In reading about other limbo dwellers readers will meet themselves or someone they love and care about and will be encouraged by the very fact that they are not alone Although it is not a pleasant place to be limbo is not a place of solitary confinement and one derives strength and resilience from the presence of the others
