A History of the Netherlands Friso Wielenga, 2015-06-25 Books offering an overview of Dutch history are few and far between in the English speaking world Friso Wielenga's A History of the Netherlands From the Sixteenth Century to the Present Day fills this gap It offers a modern integrated outline of Dutch history from the period in which the country took shape as a geographical administrative and political entity and undermines the presumption that Dutch history since the 16th century was characterised by political consensus and religious toleration Domestic and foreign politics take pride of place interwoven with the broad lines of economic and cultural developments as Wielenga uses the Netherlands geographical location and its international relations to better understand the partially tumultuous past and present of this small land on the North Sea A History of the Netherlands provides an authoritative comprehensive in depth survey and will be of great value to students of modern European history

Catholic Power in the Netherlands Herman Bakvis, 1981 Dutch Catholics long constituted by far the most cohesive political subculture in Western Europe For nearly half a century virtually all Catholics in the Netherlands supported a single political party the Catholic party resisting appeals from both the left and the right Then in the mid 1960s their allegiance began to crumble by 1972 only a small minority of Dutch Catholics still voted for the party and a few years later it had ceased to exist

The Diversity of Nonreligion Johannes Quack, Cora Schuh, Susanne Kind, 2019-07-01 This book explores the relational dynamic of religious and nonreligious positions as well as the tensions between competing modes of nonreligion Across the globe individuals and communities are seeking to distinguish themselves in different ways from religion as they take on an identity unaffiliated to any particular faith The resulting diversity of nonreligion has until recently been largely ignored in academia Conceptually the book advances a relational approach to nonreligion which is inspired by Pierre Bourdieu's field theory It also offers further analytical distinctions that help to identify and delineate different modes of nonreligion with respect to actors values objectives and their relations with relevant religious others The significance of this conceptual frame is illustrated by three empirical studies on organized humanism in Sweden atheism and freethought in the Philippines and secular politics in the Netherlands These studies analyze the normativities and changing positions of different groups against the background of both institutionalized religious practice and changing religious fields more generally This is a fascinating exploration of how nonreligion and secularities are developing across the world It complements existing approaches to the study of religion secularity and secularism and will therefore be of great value to scholars of religious studies as well as the anthropology history and sociology of religion more generally

Christian Democracy in the European Union, 1945/1995 Emiel Lamberts, 1997 The authors investigate the influence of Christian Democratic parties on political institutions parliamentary democracy and European integration and socio economic structures the collective bargaining economy and the welfare state

The Netherlands and the Gold Standard, 1931-1936 Richard T. Griffiths, 1987-05-31 On 26 September 1936 deep in the night the Dutch cabinet took the decision to cut the guilder's link with gold and to devalue its currency It was the last of the increasingly isolated and beleaguered gold bloc countries to do so having outlasted Switzerland by less than a day the last country in Europe in which holders of a currency could exchange it for gold at the rate which had prevailed before the First World War the last country to leave the gold standard The reason why the Gold Bloc which in September 1936 comprised only France Switzerland and the Netherlands should have hung on so long is something of a puzzle to historians since it has become virtually axiomatic that their recoveries would have begun sooner and proceeded more strongly had they cut the link with gold and devalued their currencies much earlier The fact that the decision not to do so has been seen as perverse combined with the fact that in order to cope with the consequences of that decision governments chose to adopt deflationary policies to correct the economy has led historians for a long time to dismiss a whole generation of politicians and their advisors as stubborn conservative and short sighted The Keynesian revolution and the long post war economic boom had consigned them and their ilk to the dustbin of history for ever

Visser 't Hooft, 1900-1985 Jurjen Zeilstra, 2025-10-01 God's diplomat the pope of the ecumenical movement but also an acerbic theologian and a difficult person this is how journalists characterised Willem Adolf Visser 't Hooft 1900 1985 He was one of the best known Dutch theologians outside the Netherlands and he left his mark on the world church Even at an early age he made profound efforts in support of international ecumenical youth and student organisations Dutch Student Christian Movement YMCA and World Student Christian Federation He led the World Council of Churches during its formative stages from 1938 and after its formal establishment in 1948 became its first general secretary serving until 1966 To Visser 't Hooft the unity of the church was both an article of faith and a pragmatic organisation of church influence in a disunited world
