De Nederlandse artillerie vanaf 1945 R. W. Hoksbergen.,J. Kroon.,1998 Empire's Violent End Thijs Brocades Zaalberg,Bart Luttikhuis,2022-07-15 In Empire's Violent End Thijs Brocades Zaalberg and Bart Luttikhuis along with expert contributors present comparative research focused specifically on excessive violence in Indonesia Algeria Vietnam Malaysia Kenya and other areas during the wars of decolonization In the last two decades there have been heated public and scholarly debates in France the United Kingdom and the Netherlands on the violent end of empire Nevertheless the broader comparative investigations into colonial counterinsurgency tend to leave atrocities such as torture execution and rape in the margins The editors describe how such comparisons mostly focus on the differences by engaging in guilt ranking Moreover the dramas that have unfolded in Algeria and Kenya tend to overshadow similar violent events in Indonesia the very first nation to declare independence directly after World War II Empire's Violent End is the first book to place the Dutch Indonesian case at the heart of a comparison with focused thematic analysis on a diverse range of topics to demonstrate that despite variation in scale combat intensity and international dynamics there were more similarities than differences in the ways colonial powers used extreme forms of violence By delving into the causes and nature of the abuse Brocades Zaalberg and Luttikhuis conclude that all cases involved some form of institutionalized impunity which enabled the type of situation in which the forces in the service of the colonial rulers were able to use extreme violence Kerken bouwen langs Maas en Rijn na 1945 A. Genesis and Nemesis of the First Dutch Colonial Empire in Asia and South Africa, 1596-1811 Gerrit Knaap, 2022-12-28 Based upon a sweeping command of Dutch East India Company VOC primary sources Knaap's manuscript offers a thought provoking thematic examination and chronological survey of the Dutch Republic's overseas and colonial expansion in Asia and South Africa mainly through the VOC and its successors the Batavian Republic the Kingdom of Holland and Franco Dutch Java over a period of more than two centuries 1596-1811 It elucidates and deals with several conceptual and theoretical issues that are intrinsically important and germane to a polity's definition of and how it chooses to execute the process of expansion overseas in the early modern period One of this work's major arguments and contributions is its advocacy that the Dutch VOC's expansion in Asia was an imperial project and must be seen as an act of empire or at the very minimum the attempt to construct one via the innovative utilization of a highly organized and dynamic commercial institution with significant political and diplomatic power and naval and military resources
