Kenton Rambsy,2022-03-25 Perhaps the brevity of short fiction accounts for the relatively scant attention devoted to it by scholars who have historically concentrated on longer prose narratives The Geographies of African American Short Fiction seeks to fill this gap by analyzing the ways African American short story writers plotted a diverse range of characters across multiple locations small towns a famous metropolis city sidewalks a rural wooded area apartment buildings a pond a general store a prison and more In the process these writers highlighted the extents to which places and spaces shaped or situated racial representations Presenting African American short story writers as cultural cartographers author Kenton Rambsy documents the variety of geographical references within their short stories to show how these authors make cultural spaces integral to their artwork and inscribe their stories with layered and resonant social histories The history of these short stories also documents the circulation of compositions across dozens of literary collections for nearly a century Anthology editors solidified the significance of a core group of short story authors including James Baldwin Toni Cade Bambara Charles Chesnutt Ralph Ellison Zora Neale Hurston and Richard Wright Using quantitative information and an extensive literary dataset The Geographies of African American Short Fiction explores how editorial practices shaped the canon of African American short fiction The Camp Colman Hogan,Marta Marin-Dòmène,2007 The camp is nothing if not diverse in kind scope and particularity in sociological and juridical configuration in texture iconography and political import Adjectives of camp specificity embrace a spectrum from extermination and concentration to detention migration deportation and refugee camps And while the geographic range covered by contributors is hardly global it is broad Chile Rwanda Canada the US Central Europe Morocco Algeria South Africa France and Spain And yet is to so characterize the camp to run the risk of diffusing what in origin is a concentration into a paratactical series of oidentity particularisms While The Camp does not seek to antithetically promulgate a universalist vision it does aim to explore the imbrication of the particular and the universal to analyze the structure of a camp or camps and to call attention the role of the listener in the construction of the testimony For by naming what cannot be said is not every narrative of internment and exclusion a potential site of agency articulating the inner splitting of language that Giorgio Agamben defines as the locus of testimony oeto bear witness is to place oneself in one TM s own language in the position of those who have lost it to establish oneself in a living language as if it were dead or in a dead language as if it were living Crafting Novels & Short Stories Writer's Digest Books,2012-01-12 Learn How to Create Stories That Captivate Agents Editors and Readers Alike Inside you ll find the tools you need to build strong characters keep your plots moving master the art of dialogue choose the right point of view and more This

Writing from Within: The Next Generation Bernard Selling, 2012-05-08

Everybody has something to say In an age when Twitter blogs and Tumblrs give millions the chance to write whatever is on their minds it seems that we re finding plenty of avenues in which to share it How then do we write what is worth saying How do we record our important memories so they ll be remembered How do we tell our personal stories the way they deserve to be told In keeping with successful earlier editions of Writing from Within Selling has stressed the idea that personal writing is a means to personal understanding Learning to write well starts with the subjects we know the best ourselves To write life stories writers explore vivid memories and re engage with the perspectives of their younger selves They learn to harness their inner critics and deal with fear They use their creative drive to remember details from their most significant memories The process of life story writing is as much one of self discovery as it is one of nostalgia These emotional connections to memories provide the backbone for Selling s writing instruction In this 25th anniversary edition of Writing from Within the original lessons of life story writing are included and significantly expanded upon Readers are given guidance on finding their earliest memories and on remembering details vividly Writing instruction is offered to accompany this process and ensure that readers life stories are full of clear accurate memories The core focus of the book is on unlocking memories and writing them as life stories However this Anniversary edition also provides substantial new material on Story pacing techniques Strategies for subtly adding exposition and denouement Revealing and unraveling character Writing stories within stories Developing unique voices within the same story Researching and writing family histories Expanding life story writing into novels or screenplays Advanced steps like creating visual motifs employing sub text and separating the writer from the central character Draft samples will show readers how their life stories will grow using the Writing from Within method Excerpts from past students life stories show the potential of the method Personal notes to readers keep them on track and their goals in perspective Writing from Within The Next Generation invites readers to find their voices and helps them along the way to doing so As much a tool for personal reflection as a guide to writing instruction the book represents a comprehensive discussion of the creative process Writers new and old will write with more skill understand themselves and their characters better and be able to turn their life experiences into art So learn to harness your inner critic Construct your own writing process Open the door to your past Give the characters voices Breathe some life into your story and leave something so future generations can get to know you
