Redeeming the Broken Body Gabriel A. Santos, 2009-01-01 This book examines how repertoires of speech and action that are often considered to be mutually exclusive those of church and state clash or unite during the postdisaster period as local communities and cities struggle to establish a stable collective identity Based on an analysis of forty in depth interviews with disaster response participants and over 325 print media sources this study explores first the extent to which ministers and citizens challenge statist narratives in order to publicly relay theological views second the cultural processes by which local places are nationalized and theologized and third the ecclesiological convictions necessary to peaceably advance the work of Christ's body after disasters

Karl Barth Paul S. Chung, 2008-09-05 In this creative and original book Paul S Chung interprets Karl Barth as a theologian of divine action Chung appreciates Barth's dogmatic theology as both contextual and irregular and he retrieves the neglected sides of Barth's thought with respect to political radicalism Israel natural theology and religious pluralism

Exploring Christology and Atonement Andrew Purves, 2015-08-07 The Scottish theologians John McLeod Campbell Hugh Ross Mackintosh and Thomas F Torrance were theologians of reconciliation who emphasized the reality of God's redemptive grace in the person and work of Jesus Christ In this magisterial treatment Andrew Purves unfolds the riches of their theology for pastoral ministry today

A Theology of Land Christopher Gerard Sexton, 2019-07-01 On the face of things the spirituality of Australia's Aborigines is hard to reconcile with a spirituality of Christian theology with its human centrism apt to a Son of God in Man made flesh in Jesus Christ Nevertheless this author Christopher Sexton a Sydney based lawyer drew on his deep Catholic theological beliefs and intense dialogue with Aboriginal elders to find a surprisingly common ground and in abundance The creation stories of each lay emphasis on humanity's stewardship for the search and its mystical riches Here is a book by a Christian lawyer who consulted widely and deeply with our First People's He found more in common between our distinct spiritualities than might be expected Proving once again that listening deeply to each other will often yield common ground

Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1984 Who Is Christ for Us? Dietrich Bonhoeffer, 2002-03-20 In the summer of 1933 Dietrich Bonhoeffer delivered powerful lectures that insisted Christians encounter Jesus Christ as a living person today as well as in history and church life Formulated in the face of the new Nazi regime a decisive moment in Bonhoeffer's own commitment to the Confessing Church his words drew attention to the living Christ as always the humiliated man for others This volume well introduced and contextualized by Nessian and Wind consists in excerpts from the 1933 lectures strikingly relevant today along with contemporary writings from Bonhoeffer and others
