China Gate A Novel Of Taiwan:

China Gate William Arnold, 1983 Anderson's Travel Companion Compiled by Sarah Anderson, 2016-12-05 A selection of the best in travel writing with both fiction and non fiction presented together this companion is for all those who like travelling like to think about travelling and who take an interest in their destination It covers guidebooks as well as books about food history art and architecture religion outdoor activities illustrated books autobiographies biographies and fiction and lists books both in and out of print Anderson's Travel Companion is arranged first by continent then alphabetically by country and then by subject cross referenced where necessary There is a separate section for guidebooks and comprehensive indexes Sarah Anderson founded the Travel Bookshop in 1979 and is also a journalist and writer on travel subjects She is known by well known travel writers such as Michael Palin and Colin Thubron Michael Palin chose her bookshop as his favourite shop and Colin Thubron and Geoffrey Moorhouse among others made suggestions for titles to include in the Travel Companion State-of-the-Art Program on Compound Semiconductors (SOTAPOCS XXXV) P. C. Chang, S. N. G. Chu, D. N. Buckley, Electrochemical Society. Electronics Division, 2001 Cinema Taiwan Darrell William Davis, Ru-shou Robert Chen, 2007-05-07 This collection presents an exciting and ambitious foray into the cultural politics of contemporary Taiwan film that goes beyond the auterist mode the nation state argument and vestiges of the New Cinema Memory Reconfiguration in Post-War Taiwanese Literature Chung-Yen Yu, 2025-07-23 This book examines the impact of martial law on transgenerational memory in post World War II Taiwan Through an intense focus on the symptoms of memories Yu argues that collective remembrances in post war Taiwan must be studied alongside the islanders collective amnesia as the post war regime coerced its citizens into forgetting To do so the book examines the core issue through the lens of two fictional works Green Island 2016 by Shawna Yang Ryan and The Stolen Bicycle originally published in 2015 translated in 2017 by Ming yi Wu whose narrators belong to the post war generation and find themselves unable to understand their parents traumas It also observes how the war generation memorize consecutive and entangled colonial experiences experiencing linguistic and social diaspora without the act of migration Ultimately Yu argues that post memory in these circumstances not only refers to secondary memory but bears an anti memory characteristic as Taiwanese society under martial law shunned the traumas of WWII and the March Massacre in 1947 Proceedings of the Second Symposium on Thin Film Transistor Technologies Yue Kuo, 1995 Women in the New Taiwan Catherine Farris, Lee Anru, Murray A. Rubinstein, An East Gate Book, 2020-08-26 Taiwan's rapid socio economic and political transformation has given rise to a gender conscious middle class that is attempting to redefine the roles of women in society to restructure relationship patterns and to organize in groups outside the family unit This book examines internal psychological processes and external societal processes as the feminist movement in Taiwan expands and new gender roles are explored The contributors represent a cross section of different disciplines history anthropology and sociology and different generations of China

Taiwan scholars They place the issues facing Taiwan's women's movement in social political and economic contexts The book examines gender relations the role of women in Chinese society and issues related to women in China throughout history Feminism and gender relations are also viewed from the context of film and literature The authors look at the contemporary roles that women play in Taiwan's work force today how the sexes perceive each other in the workplace and more

Modernist Aesthetics in Taiwanese Poetry Since The 1950s Chung-To Au, 2008 Drawing on the phenomenon of placelessness this book offers an alternative approach to reexamine Chinese modernist literature on the whole and Taiwanese modernist poetry in particular

Asian American Fiction After 1965 Christopher T. Fan, 2024-04-23 After the 1965 Immigration and Nationality Act loosened discriminatory restrictions people from Northeast Asian countries such as South Korea Taiwan Japan and eventually China immigrated to the United States in large numbers Highly skilled Asian immigrants flocked to professional managerial occupations especially in science technology engineering and math Asian American literature is now overwhelmingly defined by this generation's children who often struggled with parental and social expectations that they would pursue lucrative careers on their way to becoming writers Christopher T Fan offers a new way to understand Asian American fiction through the lens of the class and race formations that shaped its authors both in the United States and in Northeast Asia In readings of writers including Ted Chiang Chang rae Lee Ken Liu Ling Ma Ruth Ozeki Kathy Wang and Charles Yu he examines how Asian American fiction maps the immigrant narrative of intergenerational conflict onto the two cultures conflict between the arts and sciences Fan argues that the self consciousness found in these writers works is a legacy of Japanese and American modernization projects that emphasized technical and scientific skills in service of rapid industrialization He considers Asian American writers attraction to science fiction the figure of the engineer and notions of the postracial modernization theory and time travel and what happens when the dream of a stable professional identity encounters the realities of deprofessionalization and proletarianization Through a transnational and historical materialist approach this groundbreaking book illuminates what makes texts and authors Asian American

The Columbia Companion to Modern East Asian Literature Joshua S. Mostow, 2003 This extraordinary one volume guide to the modern literatures of China Japan and Korea is the definitive reference work on the subject in the English language With more than one hundred articles that show how a host of authors and literary movements have contributed to the general literary development of their respective countries this companion is an essential starting point for the study of East Asian literatures Comprehensive thematic essays introduce each geographical section with historical overviews and surveys of persistent themes in the literature examined including nationalism gender family relations and sexuality Following the thematic essays are the individual entries over forty for China over fifty for Japan and almost thirty for Korea featuring everything from detailed analyses of the works of Tanizaki Jun ichiro and Murakami Haruki to far ranging explorations of avant garde fiction in China and postwar novels in Korea Arrayed chronologically each entry is self contained though extensive cross referencing affords readers the opportunity to gain a more synoptic view of the work author or movement The unrivaled opportunities for comparative analysis alone make this unique companion an indispensable reference for anyone interested in the burgeoning field of Asian literature Although the literatures of China Japan and Korea are each allotted separate sections the editors constantly kept an eye open to those writers works and movements that transcend national boundaries This includes for example Chinese authors who lived and wrote in Japan Japanese authors who wrote in classical Chinese and Korean authors who write in Japanese whether under the colonial occupation or because they are resident in Japan The waves of modernization can be seen as reaching each of these countries in a staggered fashion with eddies and back flows between them then complicating the picture further This volume provides a vivid sense of this dynamic interplay
