succeed in our global society Building Resiliency in Youth Jim Peters, Ian Thurlow, 2003 It's about being constructive The Building Resiliency series takes a strengths based approach that will help teachers gain an understanding of resilience and how to build and nurture it It works on the premise that resilience based practices assist young people to direct their energies towards achieving success It will challenge educators to reflect on the effectiveness of what they do Building Healthy Individuals, Families, and Communities Ted N. Strader, David A. Collins, Tim D. Noe, 2012-12-06 Youth have nearly always exhibited behaviors that frustrate adults It can be difficult to understand why young people engage in risky or destructive behavior and it is challenging to develop strategies to encourage more healthy and responsible behavior among our youth However it is helpful to realize that despite the fact that large numbers of youth engage in frightful and destructive behaviors for periods of time during adolescence and early adulthood a large proportion of youth find a way not only to survive but also to bounce back and contribute significantly to the furtherance of human development We are not the first generation of adults to experience the pain fear and frustration of dealing with our youth More important we recognize that we are not helpless when faced with the problems youth experience While it is true that adolescents have always exhibited problem behaviors a number of effective tools and approaches have always been at our disposal to assist with appropriate youth development Of course the most effective approaches require a tremendous amount of focused time and energy

Art Therapy Practices for Resilient Youth Marygrace Berberian, Benjamin Davis, 2019-11-28 Art Therapy Practices for Resilient Youth highlights the paradigm shift to treating children and adolescents as at promise rather than at risk By utilizing a strength based model that moves in opposition to pathology this volume presents a client allied modality wherein youth are given the opportunity to express emotions that can be difficult to convey using words Working internationally with diverse groups of young people grappling with various forms of trauma 30 contributing therapists share their processes informed by current understandings of neurobiology attachment theory and developmental psychology In addition to guiding principles and real world examples also included are practical directives strategies and applications Together this compilation highlights the promise of healing through the creative arts in the face of oppression Resilience and
