

Gattaca

I may have heard this movie before, even if this is my first time. Watching movies, I think this is very interesting. Overall, I became real here, the information the movie brings to me is obviously related to discrimination and social stratification. To adapt to the future theme, the type of discrimination is not described as racial, religious or gender differences, but according to its heritage. This movie is very personal to me, and I will clarify it later.

Gattaca is nothing more than eugenics, which can be seen in encouraging potential children through genetic manipulation to get the best genetic quality of parents. In the story, Vincent, who is outside the eugenics course work hard to overcome genetic discrimination to realize his dream, this became the center of the movie. In the Gattaca movie, whether he can find a job depends on his choice of DNA. Urine and blood tests are Vincent's interview with Gattaca. If Vincent did not deceive the tester, he was Jerome, then Gattaca would not use his DNA to work with. The organization does not actually provide low or poor genes, depending on its biology, this is not necessary because state and federal laws are already in place.

Of course, Vincent is not in the laboratory, but a second-class citizen. he grows in a society where race is not belief, sex, sexism. So, he accepted the identity of Jerome Morrow, a man with an ideal genre. In order to realize his dream of going to Gattaca and Titan.

Gattaca is a world of people who are considered "perfect". A godly man named Vincent create a character that fits his vision of becoming a space pioneer. Gattaca is a built-in location cloning creates an excellent society. Although he has always been regarded as a prisoner, his hopes and desires will not give up. Vincent will definitely perform well in all aspects to some extent. In determining the genetically perfect Jerome Morrow, Vincent was manipulating humans. But Vincent 's diligence and determination are his ultimate success personality, not the blood of Jerome.

The basic lesson of this film is clearly that personality can't shape heredity composition and respect for a person's personality and well-being will not help their genetic material. Vincent and Jerome are important people, they ignore their genetics state of health. Vincent tried to discover his true potential through the eugenics program, and Jerome has worryingly damaged his fertility. Therefore, Gattaca emphasis on dedication, desire and motivation are the true characteristics of mankind and creation.

Gattaca often discusses the value of uniqueness. Lack of distinctive features at the Gattaca Institute. All employees wear exactly the same clothes and do not communicate, they cannot distinguish themselves. The film then focuses on quality and lack personality. Animals were cloned in this country, but humans were not. The explanation for this is that
