Positive Learning Environments John De Nobile, Gordon Lyons (Lecturer and researcher), Michael Arthur-Kelly, 2017-04-05 How do you create a learning environment that's productive one where students are engaged, learning and happy? And how do you ensure that inappropriate behaviours are kept to a minimum? This exciting new text introduces the key concepts you need to know to create and maintain your classroom as a positive learning environment. It begins by introducing four essential components that are the cornerstones of creating a positive, productive learning environment. These positive practices will set you on the pathway to success and help you establish classrooms that recognise and encourage appropriate behaviours while reducing the probability of inappropriate behaviours. It then examines in turn each of the four main groups of evidence-based approaches to managing student behaviour: behavioural, cognitive, behavioural psychoeducational and social justice approaches. For each it discusses the theories that inform them, their practical applications for fostering appropriate behaviours and also when and how to use them to proactively intervene if necessary. By the end you will be empowered to select appropriate theories, approaches and strategies and bring these together to develop your individualised classroom management plan, one that suits your own theoretical beliefs, professional philosophy and teaching style.

Youth Literature for Peace Education C. Carter, L. Pickett, 2014-10-16 Carter and Pickett explore how educators and families can teach peace education through youth literature and literacy development. Educators who want to incorporate peace education within a broader literacy-focused curriculum and peace educators looking for age-appropriate materials and methodologies will find Youth Literature for Peace Education a rich and interdisciplinary resource.
