Clothing And Difference Embodied Identities In Colonial And Post Colonial Africa:

Clothing and Difference Hildi Hendrickson, 1996 This volume examines the dynamic relationship between the body clothing and identity in sub Saharan Africa and raises questions that have previously been directed almost exclusively to a Western and urban context Unusual in its treatment of the body surface as a critical frontier in the production and authentication of identity Clothing and Difference shows how the body and its adornment have been used to construct and contest social and individual identities in Nigeria Zimbabwe Tanzania Kenya and other African societies during both colonial and post colonial times Grounded in the insights of anthropology and history and influenced by developments in cultural studies these essays investigate the relations between the personal and the public and between ideas about the self and those about the family gender and national groups They explore the bodily and material creation of the changing identities of women spirits youths ancestors and entrepreneurs through a consideration of topics such as fashion spirit possession commodity exchange hygiene and mourning By taking African societies as its focus Clothing and Difference demonstrates that factors considered integral to Western social development heterogeneity migration urbanization transnational exchange and media representation have existed elsewhere in different configurations and with different outcomes With significance for a wide range of fields including gender studies cultural studies art history performance studies political science semiotics economics folklore and fashion and textile analysis design this work provides alternative views of the structures underpinning Western systems of commodification postmodernism and cultural differentiation Contributors Misty Bastian Timothy Burke Hildi Hendrickson Deborah James Adeline Masquelier Elisha Renne Johanna Schoss Brad Weiss

Anthropology and the Individual Daniel Miller, 2020-05-18 Anthropology is usually associated with the study of society but the anthropologist must also understand people as individuals This highly original study demonstrates how methods of social analysis can be applied to the individual while remaining entirely distinct from psychology and other perspectives on the person Contributors draw on approaches from material culture to create fascinating portraits of individuals offering analytical insights that convey ethnographic encounters with often extraordinary people from Turkey Spain and Britain to Albania Cuba Jamaica Mali Serbia and Trinidad Exploring relationships to places and spaces such as social networking sites to persons such as parents to ethical concerns such as fairness and to concepts such as the ideology of struggle Anthropology and the Individual shows how the study of the individual can provide insights into society without losing a sense of the particularity of the person Postcolonial Hauntologies: African Women's Discourses of the Female Body Ayo A.

Coly, 2019-06-01 Postcolonial Hauntologies is an interdisciplinary and comparative analysis of critical literary visual and performance texts by women from different parts of Africa While contemporary critical thought and feminist theory have largely integrated the sexual female body into their disciplines colonial representations of African women s sexuality haunt contemporary postcolonial African scholarship which by maintaining a culture of avoidance about women s sexuality generates a discursive conscription that ultimately holds the female body hostage Ayo A Coly employs the concept of hauntology and ghostly matters to formulate an explicative framework in which to examine postcolonial silences surrounding the African female body as well as a theoretical framework for discerning the elusive and cautious presences of female sexuality in the texts of African women In illuminating the pervasive silence about the sexual female body in postcolonial African scholarship Postcolonial Hauntologies challenges hostile responses to critical and artistic voices that suggest the African female body represents sacred ideological discursive ground on which one treads carefully if at all Coly demonstrates how ghosts from the colonial past are countered by discursive engagements with explicit representations of women s sexuality and bodies that emphasize African women s power and autonomy Daily Life in Colonial Africa Toyin Falola,2024-07-11 Discover how European colonization across the many regions in Africa dramatically altered the continent and the daily lived experiences of its peoples Daily Life in Colonial Africa explores nine facets of daily life in the European colonized African continent such as domestic economic political and religious life Examples of everyday people farmers forced to switch to cash crops people of faith melding native traditions and European Christian doctrine on beliefs about the afterlife storytellers using allegory to discreetly challenge colonial rule show how colonialization impacted every aspect of life for Africa s indigenous people as well as how they adapted to new ways of life while maintaining their cultural roots Alongside the main text helpful additional resources such as a timeline of the colonization of Africa and a glossary of terms provide useful context for understanding what life in this period of history was truly like for the many different people and groups affected by Africa s colonization The Cambridge Global History of Fashion: Volume 2 Christopher Breward,Beverly Lemire,Giorgio Riello,2023-08-17 Volume II surveys the history of fashion from the nineteenth century to the present day Covering the period beginning with mass industry and ending with calls for sustainability this volume challenges the meaning of modernity and modernism from a global perspective and reflects on important scholarship that has changed our understanding of the relationship between fashion and colonialism Empires shifted and new powers rose with fashion marking and contending with this change The volume concludes with a critical view of fashion and globalisation and explores the deep connections between the fashion industry the global economy and the politics of production and wearing in the contemporary world Strategies of Representation in Auto/biography M. Hove,Kgomotso Masemola,2014-05-13 Strategies of Representation in Auto biography investigates how selves are represented and reconstructed in selected auto biographical readings from African literary discourse It examines how such representations confirm validate interrogate and pervade conversations with issues of identity nation and history In addition to providing an overview of the multidimensionality of auto biography the book also introduces readers to various ways of reading and analysing auto biographical writings and develops specific perspectives on the genre and views inherently expressed through the re imagined re membered and re constructed self that speaks through the pages of autobiographical scripting The focus on auto biographical writings from southern Africa specifically South Africa and Zimbabwe offers a fresh reading of the work of significant figures in the political economic and sociological spheres of these nation states This collection shows that auto biography may be more than simply the representation of an individual life and that the socio cultural memory of a people is a core aspect influencing individual self representation African Dress Karen Tranberg Hansen,D. Soyini

Madison,2013-04-11 Through a broad range of case studies based on pioneering research African Dress explores key themes of fashion the body performance and identity It is the first scholarly yet accessible overview of African fashion and dress practices Fashion, Agency, and Empowerment Annette Lynch,Katalin Medvedev,2018-11-29 Fashion has always been strongly linked with the politics of gender and equality In this global and interdisciplinary collection leading authors explore the relationships between the dressed body fashion sex and power with an emphasis on the role of dress in both reinforcing and challenging social norms Covering a range of geographic and social contexts the book explores the role of fashion in empowering both individuals and groups to create transformation and change Taking us from the performance of black dandyism through stylized hats to the use of challenging dance forms and male inspired dress by female South African dancers to express independence and equality to ways in which recent Bond Girls have challenged traditional gender binaries the book provides a crucial entry point into discussions of fashion as an empowerment strategy Fashion Agency and Empowerment encourages the reader to critically examine the cultural and social impact of sexual objectification as well as to consider personal and shared narratives of self objectification and repression With chapters ranging from the iconic self fashioning of Princess Diana to a discussion of sex power and cultural constructions of masculinity Fashion Agency and Empowerment provides crucial insights into global fashion political structures and social life Salaula Karen Tranberg

Hansen,2000-08 When we donate our unwanted clothes to charity we rarely think about what will happen to them who will sort and sell them and finally who will revive and wear them In this fascinating look at the multibillion dollar secondhand clothing business Karen Tranberg Hansen takes us around the world from the West where clothing is donated through the salvage houses in North America and Europe where it is sorted and compressed to Africa in this case Zambia There it enters the dynamic world of Salaula a Bemba term that means to rummage through a pile Essential for the African economy the secondhand clothing business is wildly popular to the point of threatening the indigenous textile industry But Hansen shows wearing secondhand clothes is about much more than imitating Western styles It is about taking a garment and altering it to something entirely local something that adheres to current cultural norms of etiquette By unraveling how these garments becomes entangled in the economic political and cultural processes of contemporary Zambia Hansen also raises provocative questions about environmentalism charity recycling and thrift Muslim Families in Global Senegal Beth through official and unofficial networks in Africa and the world Muslim Families in Global Senegal focuses on trade and the transmission of enduring social value through cloth, videos of life cycle rituals and religious offerings. Highlighting women's participation in these networks and the financial strategies they rely on, Beth Buggenhagen reveals the deep connections between economic profits and ritual and social authority. Buggenhagen discovers that these strategies are not responses to a dispersed community in crisis but rather produce new roles, wealth and worth for Senegalese women in all parts of the globe. A lively, insightful and important study of exchange practices between Senegal and a circuit of global trade. The innovative focus is on the meanings, not the social and economic functions, of exchange. Karen Tranberg Hansen, Northwestern University. While the author's focus is on the transformation in the role of women both within the family network and in the marketplace, the book allows readers to better understand the impact of globalism on the citizens of Senegal.

Buggenhagen,2012-02-06 A first rate ethnography of Muslim women in Dakar an extremely fine grained analysis of women s exchange networks Robert Launay Northwestern University Senegalese Murid migrants have circulated cargo and currency
