

Sociología

La sociología es una ciencia humana con ámbito enfocado en lo social, el cual es una de las ciencias más jóvenes. Entonces podemos mencionar que la sociología se va a encargar de estudiar, analizar y describir todo lo que se relaciona con la sociedad, es decir, la forma en que estos se organizan, su estructura, conductas y problemáticas que se estén presentando en determinada sociedad, además teniendo en consideración los hechos históricos de la humanidad ya que estos de cierta forma afectan en el ser de un determinado grupo de personas.

Objeto de estudio:

En cuanto al objeto de estudio se puede mencionar que son los seres humanos, estudiada desde una perspectiva individual y colectiva, y las relaciones que estos tienen. Pero este estudio que se realiza para conocer de manera holística a la sociedad se debe de realizar de la manera correcta con un margen de error muy pequeño o si es posible nulo, y esto se lo realiza aplicando lo que nosotros ya conocemos como el método científico ya que de esta forma podremos determinar sus estructuras, formas de organización y conductas.
