Chinese Girl In The Ghetto:

Chinese Girl in the Ghetto Ying Ma, 2011-03-18 As China opens itself to the world and undertakes historic economic reforms a little girl in the southern city of Guangzhou immerses herself in a world of fantasy and foreign influences while grappling with the mundane vagaries of Communist rule She happily immigrates to Oakland California expecting her new life to be far better in all ways than life in China Instead she discovers crumbling schools unsafe streets and racist people In the land of the free she comes of age amid the dysfunction of a city s brokenness and learns to hate in the shadows of urban decay This is the unforgettable story of her journey from China to an American ghetto and how she prevailed The Contested Murder of Latasha Harlins Brenda Stevenson, 2013-07-23 Helicopters patrolled low over the city filming blocks of burning cars and buildings mobs breaking into storefronts and the vicious beating of truck driver Reginald Denny For a week in April 1992 Los Angeles transformed into a cityscape of rage purportedly due to the exoneration of four policemen who had beaten Rodney King It should be no surprise that such intense anger erupted from something deeper than a single incident In The Contested Murder of Latasha Harlins Brenda Stevenson tells the dramatic story of an earlier trial a turning point on the road to the 1992 riot On March 16 1991 fifteen year old Latasha Harlins an African American who lived locally entered the Empire Liquor Market at 9172 South Figueroa Street in South Central Los Angeles Behind the counter was a Korean woman named Soon Ja Du Latasha walked to the refrigerator cases in the back took a bottle of orange juice put it in her backpack and approached the cash register with two dollar bills in her hand the price of the juice Moments later she was face down on the floor with a bullet hole in the back of her head shot dead by Du Joyce Karlin a Jewish Superior Court judge appointed by Republican Governor Pete Wilson presided over the resulting manslaughter trial A jury convicted Du but Karlin sentenced her only to probation community service and a 500 fine The author meticulously reconstructs these events and their aftermath showing how they set the stage for the explosion in 1992 An accomplished historian at UCLA Stevenson explores the lives of each of these three women Harlins Du and Karlin and their very different worlds in rich detail Through the three women she not only reveals the human reality and social repercussions of this triangular collision she also provides a deep history of immigration ethnicity and gender in modern America Massively researched deftly written The Contested Murder of Latasha Harlins will reshape our understanding of race ethnicity gender and above all justice in modern America The Girl From Shanghai Ghetto Johnson Wu, 2023-03-06 This gripping historical novel is based on true stories It has been longlisted for the 2022 Guernica Prize for Literary Fiction The sweeping saga narrates a Jewish girl Nina goes through many wars by six mighty rivers in six countries Nina is born by the Rhine River in Germany She is only eight when the notorious Kristallnacht occurs on November 9 1938 Immediately after Nina escapes from Nazi Germany to London alone by British Kindertransport program and lives near the Thames River in UK Nina never knows she will struggle and grow up in the Shanghai ghetto by the Huangpu River in China during WWII Nina can t imagine she will confront more deadly wars in Israel

US and Canada Even though she experiences the romance from her first love to faulty love to true love all in extraordinary ways does Nina survive those serious life or death challenges Nina s fascinating life coincides with some of the major historical events of the twentieth century from WWII to the attack of 9 11 The Girl From Shanghai Ghetto is like a cinematic epic legend which looks back at history and shows humanity s glory that transcends hatred and pursues peace The Unprotected Class Jeremy Carl,2024-04-23 Anti white racism undisguised and unembarrassed is now official policy in America One class of citizens whites is openly discriminated against in every sphere of public and private life The Unprotected Class is a comprehensive explanation of how we got here and what we must do to correct a manifest and dangerous injustice Launched with an appeal to justice for all the civil rights movement went off the rails even as it achieved its original goals Soon its excesses and failures were exploited to justify discrimination against whites in business education law entertainment and even the church With the death of George Floyd and the shedding of all pretense of racial justice vindictiveness resentment and hatred were unleashed in America How to Raise a Conservative Daughter Michelle Easton,2021-07-06 In a long career devoted to equipping the next generation of conservative women for leadership Michelle Easton has worked with thousands of students and young professionals Their backgrounds are as varied as America itself but in each girl s life something went right It is possible Easton shows to nurture lasting values in your daughter Her tested and sometimes counter intuitive techniques will strengthen your daughter s heart and mind There are no guarantees but savvy determined and loving parents have more than a fighting chance of raising the wives mothers and leaders our country so desperately needs adapted from jacket The Plot to Change America Mike Gonzalez,2022-06-14 The Plot to Change America exposes the myths that help identity politics perpetuate itself This book reveals what has really happened explains why it is urgent to change course and offers a strategy to do so Though we should not fool ourselves into thinking that it will be easy to eliminate identity politics we should not overthink it either Identity politics relies on the creation of groups and then on giving people incentives to adhere to them If we eliminate group making and the enticements we can get rid of identity politics The first myth that this book exposes is that identity politics is a grassroots movement when from the beginning it has been and continues to be an elite project For too long we have lived with the fairy tale that America has organically grown into a nation gripped by victimhood and identitarian division that it is all the result of legitimate demands by minorities for recognition or restitutions for past wrongs The second myth is that identity politics is a response to the demographic change this country has undergone since immigration laws were radically changed in 1965 Another myth we are told is that to fight these changes is as depraved as it is futile since by 2040 America will be a minority majority country anyway This book helps to explain that none of these things are necessarily true Ghetto Images in Twentieth-Century American Literature Tyrone R. Simpson II,2012-01-30 This book explores how six American writers have artistically responded to the racialization of U S frostbelt cities in the twentieth century Using the critical tools of spatial theory critical race theory urban history and sociology Simpson explains how these writers imagine the subjective response to the race making power of space

The Martial Arts Cinema of the Chinese Diaspora Kin-Yan Szeto, 2011-06-29 In The Martial Arts Cinema of the Chinese Diaspora Kin Yan Szeto critically examines three of the most internationally famous martial arts film artists to arise out of the Chinese diaspora and travel far from their homelands to find commercial success in the world at large Ang Lee John Woo and Jackie Chan Positing the idea that these filmmakers success is evidence of a cosmopolitical awareness arising from their cross cultural ideological engagements and geopolitical displacements Szeto demonstrates how this unique perspective allows these three filmmakers to develop and act in the transnational environment of media production distribution and consumption Beginning with a historical retrospective on Chinese martial arts films as a diasporic film genre and the transnational styles and ideologies of the filmmakers themselves Szeto uses case studies to explore in depth how the forces of colonialism Chinese nationalism and Western imperialism shaped the identities and work of Lee Woo and Chan Addressed in the volume is the groundbreaking martial arts swordplay film that achieves global success Ang Lee s Crouching Tiger Hidden Dragon and its revelations about Hollywood representations of Asians as well as concepts of male and female masculinity in the swordplay film tradition Also investigated is the invigoration of contemporary gangster thriller and war films by John Woo whose combination of artistic and historical contexts has contributed to his global success Szeto then dissects Chan s mimetic representation of masculinity in his films and the influences of his Chinese theater and martial arts training on his work Szeto outlines the similarities and differences between the three artists films especially their treatments of gender sexuality and power She concludes by analyzing their films as metaphors for their working conditions in the Chinese diaspora and Hollywood and demonstrating how through their works Lee Woo and Chan communicate not only with the rest of the world but also with each other Far from a book simply about three filmmakers The Martial Arts Cinema of the Chinese Diaspora investigates the transnational nature of films the geopolitics of culture and race and the depths of masculinity and power in movies Szeto s interdisciplinary approach calls for nothing less than a paradigm shift in the study of Chinese diasporic filmmakers and the embodiment of cosmopolitical perspectives in the martial arts genre
