Empire in the Air Chandra D. Bhimull, 2017-12-12 Honorable Mention 2019 Victor Turner Prize in Ethnographic Writing given by the Society for Humanistic Anthropology Honorable Mention 2019 Sharon Stephens Prize given by the American Ethnological Society Examines the role that race played in the inception of the airline industry Empire in the Air is at once a history of aviation and an examination of how air travel changed lives along the transatlantic corridor of the African diaspora Focusing on Britain and its Caribbean colonies Chandra Bhimull reveals how the black West Indies shaped the development of British Airways Bhimull offers a unique analysis of early airline travel illuminating the links among empire aviation and diaspora and in doing so provides insights into how racially oppressed people experienced air travel The emergence of artificial flight revolutionized the movement of people and power and Bhimull makes the connection between airplanes and the other vessels that have helped make and maintain the African diaspora the slave ships of the Middle Passage the tracks of the Underground Railroad and Marcus Garvey's black owned ocean liner As a new technology airline travel retained the racist ideas and practices that were embedded in British imperialism and these ideas shaped every aspect of how commercial aviation developed from how airline routes were set to who could travel easily and who could not The author concludes with a look at airline travel today suggesting that racism is still enmeshed in the banalities of contemporary flight

Food Activism Today Donald M. Nonini, Dorothy C. Holland, 2024-05-21 Illuminates how food activism has been taking shape and where it is headed As climate change childhood obesity and food insecurity accelerate at an alarming pace activists around the country are working to address the pressing need for healthy and sustainable solutions to feed the population Food Activism Today investigates the new approaches food activists are taking as they formulate alternatives to the current unsustainable agro industrial food system Drawing on ethnographic research conducted over an eleven month period in both urban and rural North Carolina the volume addresses questions about the moral visions of food activists how class and racial hierarchies infuse some food activism movements and how food activism relates to climate change and imminent ecological collapse Exploring food activism around both local and sustainable food production and food security for lower income people the volume finds surprisingly little overlap with the two movements seemingly remaining distinct approaches at least for now to issues around the food system climate change and access to healthy food choices As the US moves into an era in which climate change and neoliberal tensions are conjoined in a looming political crisis Food Activism Today looks at where food activism is headed the ethics and issues surrounding alternative approaches to food production and how food production is related to broader issues of climate change The Movement for Reproductive Justice Patricia Zavella, 2024-05-19 2021 Outstanding Academic Title Choice Magazine Shows how reproductive justice organizations collaborative work across racial lines provides a compelling model for other groups to successfully influence change Patricia Zavella experienced firsthand the trials and judgments imposed on a working professional mother of color her own commitment to academia was questioned during her pregnancy as she was shamed for having children too young And when she finally achieved her professorship she felt out of place as one of the few female faculty members with children These experiences sparked Zavella's interest in the movement for reproductive justice In this book she draws on five years of ethnographic research to explore collaborations among women of color engaged in reproductive justice activism While there are numerous organizations focused on reproductive justice most are racially specific such as the National Asian Pacific American Women's Forum and Black Women for Wellness Yet Zavella reveals that many of these organizations have built coalitions among themselves sharing resources and supporting each other through different campaigns and struggles While the coalitions are often regional or even national the organizations themselves remain racially or ethnically specific presenting unique challenges and opportunities for the women involved Zavella argues that these organizations provide a compelling model for negotiating across differences within constituencies In the context of the war on women's reproductive rights and its disproportionate effect on women of color and increased legal violence toward immigrants and now incorporating an updated preface addressing the Dobbs decision which struck down Roe v Wade The Movement for Reproductive Justice demonstrates that a truly intersectional movement built on grassroots organizing culture shift work and policy advocating can offer visions of strength resiliency and dignity for all

War, Citizenship, Territory Deborah Cowen, Emily Gilbert, 2024-11-01 For all too obvious reasons war empire and military conflict have become extremely hot topics in the academy Given the changing nature of war one of the more promising areas of scholarly investigation has been the development of new theories of war and war's impact on society War Citizenship Territory features 19 chapters that look at the impact of war and militarism on citizenship whether traditional territorially bound national citizenship or transnational citizenship The editors argue that while there has been an explosion of work on citizenship and territory Western academia's avoidance of the immediate effects of war among other things has led them to ignore war which they contend is both pervasive and well nigh permanent This volume sets forth a new geopolitically based theory of war's transformative role on contemporary forms of citizenship and territoriality and includes empirical chapters that offer global coverage
