This unique collection brings back into print some of the lesser known poems of James B V Thomson 1834-82 as well as his acclaimed The City of Dreadful Night. Composed in the later half of the nineteenth century, many of Thomson's post-Christian poems challenge the securities of Victorian religious comfort and sceptically view the human condition as devoid of connection with any providential sustenance.

The city of dreadful night is a poem of pessimism which neither widely read nor popular has however a twofold value as a document of humanity and as an extraordinarily thorough and vivid representation of a sole overmastering mood, undesirable but undeniable. Written by the Scottish poet James Thomson himself, a lifelong melancholic. Many of the earliest books, particularly those dating back to the 1900s and before, are now extremely scarce and increasingly expensive. We are republishing these classic works in affordable, high-quality modern editions using the original text and artwork.
