Confucianism Buddhism Daoism Christianity And Chinese Culture China Academic Library:

Confucianism, Buddhism, Daoism, Christianity, and Chinese Culture Yijie Tang, 1991 Confucianism and Daoism absorbing and mutually transforming new horizons especially Buddhism attention to the writings of Matteo Ricci and potential Christian contributions to modern development in Chinese culture Confucianism, Buddhism, Daoism, Christianity and Chinese Culture Yijie Tang, 2015-02-12 This book collects the 25 most important articles written by Professor Tang since the 1980s dealing extensively with issues of Confucianism Buddhism Daoism Christianity and Chinese culture In these articles Professor Tang proves his value as a worthy successor to the Chinese philosophical tradition while also open to the latest trends of thought both at home and abroad The late Professor Tang Yijie 1927 2014 was a prominent professor at Peking University and China's top scholar on philosophy and Chinese studies He spearheaded the Confucian Canon project which seeks to compile all known classical works on Confucianism comparable in scope and significance to the Complete Library of the Four Treasuries the largest collection of books on Chinese history which was commissioned by the Qianlong Emperor in the 18th century Throughout his life Professor Tang published scores of books and more than one hundred articles offering enlightening insights into how to deal with issues that have historically troubled and continue to trouble people in modern society Among his numerous innovations Professor Tang is especially remembered for introducing the concept of harmony in diversity In the context of the clash of civilizations championed by Samuel P Huntington Tang argued for harmony in diversity holding that this principle can offer some clues to help enable peoples nations and regions with different cultural traditions to develop together while remaining unique note represents Chinese character please refer to BCC file

Geopolitics of Global Catholicism Petr Kratochvíl, 2024-05-29 Geopolitics of Global Catholicism uncovers the key trends in today's Catholicism providing an incisive analysis of its deep entanglement with national regional as well as global politics This book offers an exciting exploration of five versions of local Catholicism's and sheds light on the various theological political constellations that not only differ widely across these national contexts but also have global geopolitical consequences It is built around a novel theoretical argument showing that Catholic geopolitics contains not only a spatial dimension as classic geopolitical studies would have it but also a temporal one As a consequence the Catholic role in the world cannot be simply understood as a result of the spatial expansion of the Church but rather as a result of the complex relationships between Catholicism and colonization inculturation backwardness and modernization's To counter the lingering Eurocentrism of most studies of the Catholic Church this book's case studies explore Catholic geopolitics in five non-European contexts focusing mainly on the Global South plus the United States Latin America Brazil North America the United States Asia India and China and Africa the Democratic Republic of the Congo These case studies also show that the successes and failures of Catholicism cannot be explained by a recourse to a single top-down interpretation of Catholic geopolitics but rather by exploring the various Catholic spatio-temporal constellations on the global regional and local levels

With the accelerating diversification of the Church and the growing role of the Global South these local and regional influences gain further importance as they are likely to increasingly define the future of Catholicism This book will be of utmost interest to scholars of International Relations Religious Studies Political Science and Theology as well as Geopolitics especially to those studying the global rise of religion Its accessible language will also appeal to the wider public beyond academia especially those interested in global Christianity as well as church leaders and members of Catholic organizations

Plato Goes to China Shadi Bartsch, 2025-08-05 The surprising story of how Greek classics are being pressed into use in contemporary China to support the regime's political agenda As improbable as it may sound an illuminating way to understand today's China and how it views the West is to look at the astonishing ways Chinese intellectuals are interpreting or is it misinterpreting the Greek classics In Plato Goes to China Shadi Bartsch offers a provocative look at Chinese politics and ideology by exploring Chinese readings of Plato Aristotle Thucydides and other ancient writers She shows how Chinese thinkers have dramatically recast the Greek classics to support China's political agenda diagnose the ills of the West and assert the superiority of China's own Confucian classical tradition In a lively account that ranges from the Jesuits to Xi Jinping Bartsch traces how the fortunes of the Greek classics have changed in China since the seventeenth century Before the Tiananmen Square crackdown the Chinese typically read Greek philosophy and political theory in order to promote democratic reform or discover the secrets of the success of Western democracy and science No longer Today many Chinese intellectuals use these texts to critique concepts such as democracy citizenship and rationality Plato's Noble Lie in which citizens are kept in their castes through deception is lauded Aristotle's Politics is seen as civic brainwashing and Thucydides's criticism of Athenian democracy is applied to modern America What do antiquity's dead white men have left to teach By uncovering the unusual ways Chinese thinkers are answering that question Plato Goes to China opens a surprising new window on China today

Thinking of Space Relationally Xiaoxue Gao, 2021-03-15 Since the relational turn scholars have combated methodological universalism nationalism and individualism in researching social spatial transformations Yet when leaving the gaps between the traveling and local epistemic assumptions unattended engaging relational spatial theories in empirical research may still reproduce established theoretical claims Following the sociology of knowledge tradition and taking Critical Realism as a meta theoretical framework Xiaoxue Gao takes relational spatial theories as traveling conceptual knowledge and develops meaningful and context sensitive ways of engaging them in studying the complex urban phenomenon in China She offers conceptual elucidations and methodological roadmaps which leap productively from employing plural causal hypotheses to generating effect based explanations for locally observable events They are exemplified by manifold interrogations of Beijing's Artworld as a conjuncture of particular events

Christianity in China Xiaoxin Wu, 2015-07-17 Now revised and updated to incorporate numerous new materials this is the major source for researching American Christian activity in China especially that of missions and missionaries It provides a thorough introduction and guide to primary and secondary sources on Christian enterprises and individuals in China that are preserved in hundreds of libraries archives historical societies headquarters of religious orders and other repositories in the United States It includes data from the beginnings of Christianity in China in the early eighth century through 1952 when American missionary activity in China virtually ceased For this new edition the institutional base has shifted from the Princeton Theological Seminary Protestant to the Ricci Institute for Chinese Western Cultural Relations at the University of San Francisco Jesuit reflecting the ecumenical nature of this monumental undertaking

Visual Subjectivity in Chinese and American Thought and Literature Guozhong Duan,Ming Dong Gu,2025-10-15 Providing the reader with a systematic study of visual subjectivity in comparative thought and literature this book analyses the role that vision and visuality especially interpersonal visuality plays in the constitution of subject and subjectivity in Chinese and American traditions Examining the formation of visual subjectivity in the philosophical works by major Chinese and Western thinkers this book provides a comparative study of four masterworks of Chinese and American fiction focusing on The Plum in the Golden Vase The Story of the Stone Moby Dick and The Scarlet Letter It demonstrates that there are both psychologically universal and culturally specific factors and features in the visual constitution and representation of self identity subject and subjectivity Offering fresh insights for cross cultural studies of intellectual thought literature ideology and culture through the visual lens this book will appeal to students and scholars engaged in comparative studies of Chinese and American thought literature and narrative theory

The Culture of Leadership in Contemporary China Paul Michael Linehan,2017-12-06 The resurgence of Confucianism Daoism and Buddhism in the context of Chinese leadership values has emerged as a foundation for a new generation of leaders The once in a decade transition of China s leadership witnessed the ascendancy of a consensus oriented fifth generation of leaders supporting a central authoritative figure whose priority will likely include the reconciliation of a waning communist ideology juxtaposed with its ostensible embrace of capitalism How will Chinese Communist Party authority ideology and control address the encroachment of Western values that are centered on Roman law Greek philosophy and Christian religion which prioritizes individual freedom and democracy This book examines the role of traditional Chinese values ideology and philosophy as a key determinant in modern China s leadership succession The author asserts that as communist ideology wanes Chinese leaders will turn to their own traditional values found in Confucianism Daoism and Buddhism to establish legitimacy to rule as they seek to promote Chinese prominence and greatness in the world The author s research assesses China s promotion of its own traditional values in rejecting foreign value influence Since the inception of modern China at the beginning of the 20th century China s leadership transition has evolved from an authoritarian cult like dictatorship to a consensus oriented process In researching this metamorphosis this book offers social political cultural and historical perspectives to demonstrate that Chinese human values and character factors have risen in prominence as key elements in the mandate of Chinese governance and leadership The author

concludes that Chinese leadership values and its study and diffusion across sectors of Chinese leadership including business organizations and government have become a means to accentuate Chinese values as a viable alternative to Western claims of absolute and universally accepted values Higher Education, State and Society Lili Yang,2022-09-08 In this monograph Lili Yang compares core ideas about the state society and higher education in two major world traditions She explores the broad cultural and philosophical ideas underlying the public good of higher education in the two traditions reveals their different social imaginaries and works through five areas where higher education intersects with the individual society the state and the world intersections understood in contrasting ways in each tradition The five key themes are individual student development in higher education equity in higher education academic freedom and university autonomy the resources and outcomes of higher education and cross border higher education activities and higher education s global outcomes In exploring the similarities Yang highlights important meeting points between the two world views with the potential to contribute to the mutual understanding and cooperation across cultures Cultural Integration and the Gospel in Vietnamese Mission Theology KimSon Nguyen,2019-11-14 Postcolonial Vietnam has an urgent need for contextualized theology of mission God Christ and the church that is rooted in indigenous cultural traditions and the dual Vietnamese spirit of resistance and assimilation Dr KimSon Nguyen navigates the religio cultural dimensions of Vietnamese spirituality and Daoism that have hindered the assimilation of the Christian faith in the Vietnamese context and explores a fresh approach to missiology in Vietnam Dr Nguyen draws upon his deep knowledge of Vietnamese evangelical history to analyze contextualization and mission theology in Vietnam He proposes an evangelical theology of God as o way the centrality of the Vietnamese home as the house of the Lord and ancestor veneration as a theological framework for an indigenous theology of the family Narrowing the gap between culturally removed evangelical missionary practice and widespread syncretistic spirituality in Vietnam Nguyen calls for a paradigm shift in Vietnamese mission theology that is both robustly evangelical and authentically Vietnamese
