An Internet for the People Jessa Lingel,2022-06-14 How craigslist champions openness democracy and other vanishing principles of the early web Begun by Craig Newmark as an e mail to some friends about cool events happening around San Francisco craigslist is now the leading classifieds service on the planet It is also a throwback to the early internet The website has barely seen an upgrade since it launched in 1996 There are no banner ads The company doesn't profit off your data An Internet for the People explores how people use craigslist to buy and sell find work and find love and reveals why craigslist is becoming a lonely outpost in an increasingly corporatized web Drawing on interviews with craigslist insiders and ordinary users Jessa Lingel looks at the site's history and values showing how it has mostly stayed the same while the web around it has become more commercial and far less open She examines craigslist's legal history describing the company's courtroom battles over issues of freedom of expression and data privacy and explains the importance of locality in the social relationships fostered by the site More than an online garage sale job board or dating site craigslist holds vital lessons for the rest of the web It is a website that values user privacy over profits ease of use over slick design and an ethos of the early web that might just hold the key to a more open transparent and democratic internet

The Craigslist Murders Brenda Cullerton, 2011-05-17 A brilliantly prophetic and modern tale of the macabre A novel that roars across the intersection of Bret Easton Ellis's American Psycho and Tom Wolfe's The Bonfire of the Vanities James Wolcott Vanity Fair columnist Unleashing the pent up fury most Americans feel over the financial crisis Brenda Cullerton's wickedly riotous tale of an interior desecrator turned murderess is a flaming arrow into the dark heart of Manhattan's filthy rich Working on New York's Upper East Side for phenomenally rich and frighteningly skinny women who are suffering from BBS Birkin Bag Syndrome a muscle ailment due to carrying heavy pocketbooks has driven interior designer Charlotte Wolfe mad It seems to her that the insatiable pursuit of luxury breeds monsters She gets even angrier when she begins to encounter the same thing over and over again these women are so cheap they go on Craigslist to sell things their husband kept from wife number one As the financial crisis escalates and Charlotte's own resources dwindle her rage leads her to not only bite the well manicured hands that feed her but to do something more to really clean house A razor sharp satire that's both laugh out loud funny and edge of your seat suspenseful The Craigslist Murders will inspire readers to cheer an unlikely heroine whose nightmares are the stuff of a poor person's dreams

Cats I've Known Katie Haegele, 2017-10-10 From deep friendships to brief encounters this is the story of the cats in Katie Haegele's life or rather the story of her life in relation to the many cats she meets in Philadelphia's streets alleys houses apartments and bookstores Through Haegele's sharp wise and at times hilarious gaze we see cats for what they truly are minor deities that mostly ignore the human foibles being played out around them They accept our offerings with equanimity and occasionally bestow some nice thing on us Haegele author of White Elephants and Slip of the Tongue has a unique and compelling sensibility and it's a treat to see the world through her eyes as she shows us all the meanness weirdness and vulnerability of humans against an ever shifting backdrop of the cats we often take for granted and who ignore us all democratically in return
