Rocking the Boat Paul Wilson, 2021-09-21 Rocking the Boat chronicles the career of a black police officer's extraordinary and unprecedented determination in challenging a police occupational culture steeped in racism In the year 2020 considerable attention was being paid to the issue of institutional racism in US law enforcement However this is not the first time or the only country in which this same issue has become relevant and pressing As a black police officer in the UK between 1983 and 2010 Paul Wilson was in the centre of a similar wave of interest and was personally involved in many of the institutional changes that were suggested debated opposed and fought in the UK during this time The author's authority on the subject of institutional racism in British policing has been acknowledged over and over as can be seen by his involvement as a consultant in numerous news and current affairs programmes the many interviews with him that have appeared in the British media his invitations to speak at events in France Canada South Africa the UK and the US and his status as the first British black person ever to be awarded a Fulbright Police Fellowship Award The author's experiences as a constable on the streets of Croydon his meeting of US President George W Bush and his being rescued by a renowned jazz musician when he's accidentally locked inside an apartment in Harlem New York are some of the events that provide humorous counterpoints to the heavy main story More than a simple history lesson these anecdotes turn the book into a pleasurable read
