The Ethics of Sex and Alzheimer's John Portmann, 2013-07-18 A growing epidemic Alzheimer's punishes not only its victims but also those married to them This book analyzes how Alzheimer's is quietly transforming the way we think about love today Without meaning to become rebels many people who find themselves married to Alzheimer's deflate the predominant notion of a conventional marriage By falling in love again before their ill spouse dies those married to Alzheimer's come into conflict with central values of Western civilization personal sexual familial religious and political Those who wait sadly for a spouse's death must sometimes wonder if the show of fidelity is necessary and whom it helps Most books on Alzheimer's focus on those who have it as opposed to those who care for someone with it This book offers a powerful and searching meditation on the extent to which someone married to Alzheimer's should be expected to suffer loneliness The diagnosis of dementia should not amount to a prohibition of sexual activity for both spouses Portmann encourages readers to risk honesty in assessing the moral dilemma using high profile cases such as Nancy Reagan and Justice Sandra Day O'Connor to illustrate the enormity of the problem Ideal for classes considering the ethics of aging and sexuality

Once Upon a Time in New York... How I Painted My Masterpiece , What Money Can't Buy Michael J. Sandel, 2012-04-24 In What Money Can t Buy renowned political philosopher Michael J Sandel rethinks the role that markets and money should play in our society Should we pay children to read books or to get good grades Should we put a price on human life to decide how much pollution to allow Is it ethical to pay people to test risky new drugs or to donate their organs What about hiring mercenaries to fight our wars outsourcing inmates to for profit prisons auctioning admission to elite universities or selling citizenship to immigrants willing to pay In his New York Times bestseller What Money Can t Buy Michael J Sandel takes up one of the biggest ethical questions of our time Isn t there something wrong with a world in which everything is for sale If so how can we prevent market values from reaching into spheres of life where they don t belong What are the moral limits of markets Over recent decades market values have crowded out nonmarket norms in almost every aspect of life Without quite realizing it Sandel argues we have drifted from having a market economy to being a market society In Justice an international bestseller Sandel showed himself to be a master at illuminating with clarity and verve the hard moral questions we confront in our everyday lives Now in What Money Can't Buy he provokes a debate that's been missing in our market-driven age What is the proper role of markets in a democratic society and how can we protect the moral and civic goods that markets do not honor and money cannot buy
