Visibility Interrupted Carly Thomsen, 2021-07-27 A questioning of the belief in the power of LGBTQ visibility through the lives of queer women in the rural Midwest Today most LGBTQ rights supporters take for granted the virtue of being out loud and proud Most also assume that it would be terrible to be LGBTQ in a rural place By considering moments in which queerness and rurality come into contact Visibility Interrupted argues that both positions are wrong In the first monograph on LGBTQ women in the rural Midwest Carly Thomsen deconstructs the image of the rural as a flat homogenous and anachronistic place where LGBTQ people necessarily suffer And she suggests that visibility is not liberation and will not lead to liberation Far from being an unambiguous good argues Thomsen visibility politics can in fact preclude collective action They also advance metronormativity postraciality and capitalism To make these interventions Thomsen develops the theory of unbecoming interrogating the relationship between that which we celebrate and that which we find disdainful the past the rural politics is crucial for developing alternative subjectivities and politics Unbecoming precedes becoming Drawing from critical race studies disability studies and queer Marxism in addition to feminist and queer studies the insights of this book will be useful to scholars theorizing issues far beyond sexuality and place and to social justice activists who want to move beyond visibility

Making the University Matter Barbie Zelizer, 2012-03-29 Making the University Matter investigates how academics situate themselves simultaneously in the university and the world and how doing so affects the viability of the university setting The university stands at the intersection of two sets of interests needing to be at one with the world while aspiring to stand apart from it In an era that promises intensified political instability growing administrative pressures dwindling economic returns and questions about economic viability lower enrolments and shrinking programs can the university continue to matter into the future And if so in which way What will help it survive as an honest broker What are the mechanisms for ensuring its independent voice Barbie Zelizer brings together some of the leading names in the field of media and communication studies from around the globe to consider a multiplicity of answers from across the curriculum on making the university matter including critical scholarship interdisciplinarity curricular blends of the humanities and social sciences practical training and policy work The collection is introduced with an essay by the editor and each section has a brief introduction to contextualise the essays and highlight the issues they raise      Losing Our Way Bob Herbert, 2015-07-07 From longtime New York Times columnist Bob Herbert comes a wrenching portrayal of ordinary Americans struggling for survival in a nation that has lost its way In his eighteen years as an opinion columnist for The New York Times Herbert championed the working poor and the middle class After filing his last column in 2011 he set off on a journey across the country to report on Americans who were being left behind in an economy that has never fully recovered from the Great Recession The portraits of those he encountered fuel his new book Losing Our Way Herbert's combination of heartrending reporting and keen political analysis is the purest expression since the Occupy movement of the plight of the 99 percent The individuals and families who are paying the price of America's bad choices in recent decades form the book's emotional center an exhausted high school student in Brooklyn who works the overnight shift in a factory at minimum wage to help pay her family's rent a twenty-four-year-old soldier from Peachtree City Georgia who loses both legs in a misguided mismanaged seemingly endless war a young woman only recently engaged who suffers devastating injuries in a tragic bridge collapse in Minneapolis and a group of parents in Pittsburgh who courageously fight back against the politicians who decimated funding for their children's schools Herbert reminds us of a time in America when unemployment was low wages and profits were high and the nation's wealth by current standards was distributed much more equitably Today the gap between the wealthy and everyone else has widened dramatically the nation's physical plant is crumbling and the inability to find decent work is a plague on a generation Herbert traces where we went wrong and spotlights the drastic and dangerous shift of political power from ordinary Americans to the corporate and financial elite Hope for America he argues lies in a concerted push to redress that political imbalance Searing and unforgettable Losing Our Way ultimately inspires with its faith in ordinary citizens to take back their true political power and reclaim the American dream      Big Media, Big Money Ronald V. Bettig, Jeanne Lynn Hall, 2012-05-04 Big Media Big Money is a lively and scathing critique of the contemporary communications industry examining how media ownership and the profit-making motive affect the messages we receive in alarming ways Through close readings of recent news events and critical examination of corporate influence Bettig and Hall conclude that current interconnections among media big business government and education pose a serious threat to democratic communications The second edition includes three new chapters covering the contemporary Hollywood film industry the changing landscape of the music industry and ad creep the proliferation of advertising into previously ad-free venues such as schools and children's television programming      The Names They Gave Us Emery Lord, 2017-05-16 Lucy Hansson was ready for a perfect summer with her boyfriend working at her childhood Bible camp on the lake and spending quality time with her parents But when her mom's cancer reappears Lucy falters in her faith and in her ability to cope When her boyfriend pauses their relationship and her summer job switches to a different camp one for troubled kids Lucy isn't sure how much more she can handle Attempting to accept a new normal Lucy slowly regains footing among her vibrant diverse coworkers Sundays with her mom and a crush on a fellow counselor But when long hidden family secrets emerge can Lucy set aside her problems and discover what grace really means Emotionally charged and unforgettable Emery Lord s storytelling shines with the promise of new love and true friendship even in the face of life s biggest challenges More Than Enough Elaine Welteroth,2020-04-28 INSTANT NEW YORK TIMES

The Top Books of the Year Craigslist State College The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. Craigslist State College : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Craigslist State College : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and thrilling novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
