Creating a New Civilization Alvin Toffler, Heidi Toffler, 1995 The Third Wave Alvin Toffler, 1990 Die Apokalypse des Pseudo-Methodius die ältesten griechischen und lateinischen Übersetzungen Jozef Lamberts, 1996 Peeters 1996

Future Shock Alvin Toffler, 1981 Explores the nature and implications of a third wave of change that is now creating a new civilization with its own life styles jobs sexual attitudes concepts of family and love economic structures and political philosophies Muslim Civic Cultures and Conflict Resolution John N. Paden, 2006-03-30 The question of whether Islam is compatible with democracy may best be answered not from the classical sources or even from the cauldron of Middle East politics but from the lived experiences of Muslim communities around the world In large and diverse countries the varied political values of different cultures can make or break the democratic experiment Regardless of their cultural context transitions from military to civilian rule require attention to the grassroots civic cultures that form the foundations of democratic federalism John Paden a noted expert on West African and Islamic societies uses Nigeria as a critical case study of how a diverse country with a significant Muslim population is working to make the transition to a democratic society Although little studied the non Arab Muslim communities of West Africa are an important indicator as to whether Islamic democracy in a diverse nation is possible Nigeria s success is vital to regional and global stability As the largest country in Africa with a population that is about half Muslim and half Christian or traditional animist Nigeria is also the seventh largest producer of oil in the world and has gone through a series of political traumas ranging from civil war to military rule The current democratic government is trying to balance rule of law concerns at a time when many communal tensions are coming to the surface Muslim Civic Cultures and Conflict Resolution in Nigeria takes us inside the complex world of Nigerian politics with a focus on the ways Muslim civic cultures deal with matters of leadership and conflict resolution The book provides an essential context to the current international concern with issues ranging from Shari a law and communal violence to the broader war on terrorism It argues that the requirement for regional political cooperation serves as a counterbalance to more extreme forms of political expression Paden shows that if the Nigerian political model o Siberia Victor L Mote, 2018-02-07 Known to most as a realm of exile and labor camps Siberia is also one of the world s wealthiest resource bases This harsh vast land constitutes nearly three quarters of Russia s territory yet after four centuries of Slavic migration and procreation it is home to a mere 32 million people In this comprehensive book Victor Mote illuminates the dichotomy between Siberia s rich treasurehouse of resources and its peripheral relationship to the rest of the world With this paradox in mind he traces the region s history from the Stone Age to the present emphasizing the unique blend of wit and will developed by inhabitants to survive one of the most brutal environments in the world a land that has been part colony part prison and part frontier Mote also explores the geography ethnography economics and politics of Siberia and its people providing a multidisciplinary perspective for scholars and general readers alike interested in Eurasia s forgotten quarter An Unruly
