Farris, 2016-11-25 Recent research in the philosophy of religion anthropology and philosophy of mind has prompted the need for a more integrated comprehensive and systematic theology of human nature This project constructively develops a theological accounting of human persons by drawing from a Cartesian as a term of art model of anthropology which is motivated by a long tradition As was common among patristics medievals and Reformed Scholastics Farris draws from philosophical resources to articulate Christian doctrine as he approaches theological anthropology Exploring a substance dualism model the author highlights relevant theological texts and passages of Scripture arguing that this model accounts for doctrinal essentials concerning theological anthropology While Farris is not explicitly interested in thorough critique of materialist ontology he notes some of the significant problems associated with it Rather the present project is an attempt to revitalize the resources found in Cartesianism by responding to some common worries associated with it Wonder as a

New Starting Point for Theological Anthropology José Francisco Morales Torres, 2023-04-04 In Wonder as a New Starting Point for Theological Anthropology Opened by the World Jos Francisco Morales Torres constructs a new theological anthropology that begins with wonder He contends that the visceral experience of wonder is an opening up of the human by an excess that saturates the world This opened by ness points to a transforming receptivity as the basis of the person and to an extravagant Generosity that grounds all creation Thus wonder which is grounded in generous Excess is not only a gift but a demand it calls for a liberative praxis that resist the forces that flatten the fullness of life into what is useful and profitable and that reduce the limitless worth of fellow humans to mere commodities to be exploited and exchanged at the altar of the idolatrous Market Wonder reveals a primordial receptivity in the human person which demands of us an ethic of sustainability that does not reduce the other to commodity a vulnerability that risks being opened by the other a commitment to solidarity and liberation that resist the forces of an insatiable idolatrous Market that seeks only to steal and kill and destroy

Since the Beginning Kyle R. Greenwood, 2018-09-04 Few passages in the Hebrew Bible have been subject to more scrutiny than Genesis 1 and 2 In this volume a diverse international team of experts guides readers through interpretations of the Genesis creation stories throughout history inviting them to consider perspectives from the earliest times to the present The book offers an accurate description of how these chapters have been read through the centuries explaining each interpretive approach in its own terms Each chapter includes sidebars and suggestions for further reading

Natural and Cosmic Theodicy Jongseock James Shin, 2022-10-21 This book presents a third way to envision the Creatorship of the Triune God who is both compassionate and eschatologically redemptive in providential presence rather than biasedly gravitating toward the openness of a self limiting God or God s all determining sovereignty Not only is God in with and under creation God s kenotic presence invites creatures to participate in the self giving love of God through both general and special divine action in a top down through bottom up mode Creatio continua is God s own journey of fulfilling the eschatological promise for creation This redemptive presence of God in creation is a Trinitarian co protesting against the power of death sin and evil considering the cosmic dimensions of the eschatological hope promised in the resurrection of Jesus The new creation is the ultimate fulfillment of creaturely freedom and contingency divinely granted in creatio ex nihilo In arguing this Shin engages in a comparative and critical study of natural and cosmic theodicy advanced by Catherine Keller Arthur Peacocke Wolfhart Pannenberg and Robert Russell
