Confronting Globalization Economic Integration And Popular Resistance In Mexico:

Confronting Globalization Timothy A. Wise, Hilda Salazar, Laura Carlsen, 2003 Illustrates how Mexican communities cope with NAFTA's effects Written by a team of US and Mexican collaborators Shows importance of trade regulations on poor communities worldwide How is the current model for economic globalization affecting both the poor and the environment Confronting Globalization extends a sweeping treatment of contemporary Mexican politics as they investigate the country's tumultuous experience under the North American Free Trade Agreement The contributors relate globalization's untold stories its social and environmental costs and the grassroots quest for alternative paths They reveal to us how vulnerable people in rural communities are choosing to defend themselves and promote their own homegrown alternatives in the face of adversity

Struggles for Justice in Canada and Mexico Linda Snyder, 2017-01-03 Struggles for Justice in Canada and Mexico examines Canadian and Mexican communities engaged in collective action to address problems related to the context of aggressive capitalism which favours economic freedom of the powerful over the needs of people and the planet The book's several case examples portray income generating projects action to promote health adequate housing and a safe environment including resistance to mining women's resource and advocacy programs as well as grassroots support organizations and independent organizers The author gathered stories in six states in the south of Mexico and two provinces in Canada between 2004 and 2010 with follow up to 2012 Thematically they centre on oppression and struggles for rights experienced by the poor women and Indigenous peoples The author's case study method bolsters her narratives by including interviews observation and some participant observation with analysis that draws on social movement theory from sociology and community organizing theory from social work as well as knowledge from social psychology liberation theology popular education and political science The book presents the common themes and illustrates the central theories for practitioners in the many fields that promote social justice social work social development health human rights environmental protection and faith based justice movements among others The conclusion presents a framework for conceptualizing social justice practice as a congruent paradigm composed of values theory objectives and practice methods

Mexico's Rebellious Afterlives Olof Kjell Oscar Ohlson, 2022-07-12 Mexico's Rebellious Afterlives Armed Uprisings and Activism in the Narco War examines nonviolent activism and armed uprisings in the narco war Olof Kjell Oscar Ohlson argues that relatives of Mexico's many victims of violence often without earlier experiences of human rights advocacy become activists protesting violence or form self armed citizens police to resist state capitalist and criminal violence Ohlson develops innovative theories on political afterlives and rituals of rebellion demonstrating how political street protests transform over time to become annual commemorative events at new memorial sites for the disappeared

Neoliberalism and Commodity Production in Mexico Thomas Weaver, James B. Greenberg, William L. Alexander, Anne Browning-Aiken, 2012-06-15 Neoliberalism and Commodity Production in Mexico details the impact of neoliberal practice on the production and exchange of basic resources in working class communities in Mexico Using anthropological investigations and a market driven approach contributors explain how uneven policies have undermined constitutional protections and working class interests since the Mexican Revolution of 1910 Detailed ethnographic fieldwork shows how foreign investment privatization deregulation and elimination of welfare benefits have devastated national industries and natural resources and threatened agriculture driving the campesinos and working class deeper into poverty Focusing on specific commodity chains and the changes to production and marketing under neoliberalism the contributors highlight the detrimental impacts of policies by telling the stories of those most affected by these changes They detail the complex interplay of local and global forces from the politically mediated systems of demand found at the local level to the increasingly powerful municipal and state governments and the global trade and banking institutions Sharing a common theoretical perspective and method throughout the chapters Neoliberalism and Commodity Production in Mexico is a multi sited ethnography that makes a significant contribution to studies of neoliberal ideology in practice

Economic Development, Integration, and Morality in Asia and the Americas Donald C. Wood, 2009-04-09 Explores economic development integration and morality in economic transactions in Asia and the Americas This title includes chapters that look at underground gambling behavior in China in light of that country's economic boom and retail store expansion and local socioeconomic effects in rural Mexico

Transnational Agrarian Movements Confronting Globalization Saturnino M. Borras, Jr., Marc Edelman, Cristóbal Kay, 2009-02-23 Readers of this book will encounter peasants and farmers who struggle at home and traverse national borders to challenge the World Trade Organization and other powerful global institutions Studies the activists in Brazil who uproot plots of genetically modified soybeans forest dwellers in Indonesia who chop down rubber plantations to cultivate rice to feed their families runaway villages in China that take up arms to resist corrupt officials and Mexican migrants who having exited in desperation return from abroad to transform their communities Little known transnational agrarian movements of the early twentieth century share the stage with more recent high profile global alliances such as Vía Campesina Celebrates a dynamic sector of international civil society and tackles the thorny questions of successes and failures ethical and political dilemmas troubled alliances with NGOs protest repertoires and representation claims Analyzes contemporary collective action in all its complexity acknowledging ambiguities and contradictions posing challenging questions and providing concrete strategies for scholars and activists

Grassroots Development, 2004 Food for the Few Gerardo Otero, 2013-05-01 Recent decades have seen tremendous changes in Latin America's agricultural sector resulting from a broad program of liberalization instigated under pressure from the United States the IMF and the World Bank Tariffs have been lifted agricultural markets have been opened and privatized land reform policies have been restricted or eliminated and the perspective has shifted radically toward exportation rather than toward the goal of feeding local citizens Examining the impact of these transformations the contributors to Food for the Few Neoliberal Globalism and Biotechnology in Latin America paint a somber portrait describing local peasant farmers who have been made responsible for protecting impossibly vast areas of biodiversity or are forced to specialize in one genetically modified crop or who become low wage workers within a capitalized farm complex Using dozens of examples such as these the deleterious consequences are surveyed from the perspectives of experts in diverse fields including anthropology economics geography political science and sociology From Kathy McAfee s Exporting Crop Biotechnology The Myth of Molecular Miracles to Liz Fitting s Importing Corn Exporting Labor The Neoliberal Corn Regime GMOs and the Erosion of Mexican Biodiversity Food for the Few balances disturbing findings with hopeful assessments of emerging grassroots alternatives Surveying not only the Latin American conditions that led to bankruptcy for countless farmers but also the North s practices such as the heavy subsidies implemented to protect North American farmers these essays represent a comprehensive keenly informed response to a pivotal global crisis

Faces of Latin America Duncan Green,Sue Branford,2013 Faces of Latin America is widely considered to be the best available introduction in English to the economies politics demography social structures environment and cultures of Latin America This new edition is thoroughly updated and covers recent developments in Latin America such as the growing costs of export agriculture the rise of Brazilian manufacturing connections between the war on drugs and the war on terror the social costs of neoliberalism the Argentinian default the search for new economic models in Venezuela and elsewhere the decline in direct U S military intervention in the region growing urbanization urban poverty and casual employment outmigration and the importance of family remittances from abroad rampant environmental destruction the struggles of indigenous movements and more From publisher s description

Specters of Belonging Adrián Félix,2019 As the United States hardens its border with Mexico how do migrants make transnational claims of citizenship in both nation states By enacting citizenship in both countries Mexican migrants are challenging the meaning of membership and belonging from the margins of both citizenship regimes With their incessant border shattering political practices Mexican migrants have become the embodiment of transnational citizenship on both sides of the divide Drawing on his experiences leading citizenship classes for Mexican migrants and working with cross border activists Adrián Félix examines the political lives and deaths of Mexican migrants in Specters of Belonging Tracing transnationalism across the different stages of the migrant political life cycle beginning with the so called political baptism of naturalization and ending with the practice by which migrant bodies are repatriated to Mexico for burial after death Félix reveals the varied ways in which Mexican transnational subjects practice citizenship in the United States as well as Mexico As such Félix unearths how Mexican migrants specters of belonging perennially haunt the political projects of nationalism citizenship and democracy on both sides of the border
