Architecture, Theology, and Ethics Elise M. Edwards, 2024-03-18 Architecture Theology and Ethics Making Architectural Design More Just argues that architecture design and creativity are theological ethical concerns that ought to be considered more deeply by Christians who are committed to social and environmental justice Elise M Edwards discusses the significance of architectural design entering into ongoing conversations in theological ethics and aesthetics She argues that architectural design is not just a professional practice for wealthy clients but rather an activity that everyday people undertake when making choices that shape the spaces they inhabit If Christians think theologically about their agency in these decisions they will discover that architectural design becomes an opportunity to contribute to the flourishing for humanity and God's creation Edwards proposes an approach to architectural design that presents it as prophetic action with the power to shape our world This book then presents five moral commitments that guide design intentions and the process of design towards justice and inclusion Grounded in liberationist feminist and womanist thought Architecture Theology and Ethics makes a compelling case for architecture's relevance to Christian ethics and theology Applied Christian Ethics Matthew Lon Weaver, 2014-09-09 Applied Christian Ethics addresses selected themes in Christian social ethics The book is divided in three parts In the first section Foundation several contributors reveal their Christian realist roots and discuss the prophetic origins and multifarious agenda of social ethics Thus the names of Reinhold Niebuhr and Paul Tillich come up frequently In the second section Economics and Justice the focus turns to the different levels at which economics has significance for social justice These chapters discuss fair housing at the local level the dialogue between Christians and Native Americans over property rights at the regional and national levels and trade and international organization In the third and final section Politics War and Peacemaking the content ranges from the existential experience of a soldier to that of a veteran of civil rights activism from theorizing about peacemaking to commenting on the use of drones Doing Christian Ethics from the Margins Miguel A. De La Torre,2014-04-30 Miguel De La Torre opens up Christian ethics to the rich diversity found among those who are often excluded from academic and Eurocentric ethical considerations This book seeks to help students realize that because the gospel message itself was proclaimed to the marginalized peoples of Judea the people who occupy the same disenfranchised spaces in our contemporary cultures are the ones who hold the interpretive key to understanding that gospel message The binding effects of power and privilege institutional or not can be overcome by a justice based ethics that avails itself of the perspectives and experiences of those on the margins Provided by publisher
