Rosenthal-Pubul,2019-01-01 In this work Alexander Rosenthal Pubul presents a broad examination of the ancient philosophical question What is the good life while addressing how the liberal arts can help us to answer this question Greek philosophy distinguished between the noble what is good in itself from the merely useful good for something else From thence follows the distinction between the liberal arts which pursue such noble goods and the mechanical arts which are only instrumental For Aristotle the most noble and excellent good is wisdom itself Hence the theoretic life devoted to the love of wisdom for its own sake philosophy is the highest and the most excellent This work theorizes the origins of modernity in a rebellion against this Greek conception resulting in a complete inversion of the classical hierarchy Sir Francis Bacon reconceiving the purpose of knowledge as power enthroned technology over philosophy and the liberal arts The unfolding of the modern Baconian revolution progressively sidelines the liberal arts as practical economic and technical utility become the standard of value In assessing this problem the book engages in a capacious journey across disciplines like philosophy history art politics and science It is also a veritable tour across the Western intellectual tradition including Socrates Plato Aristotle Cicero Seneca Thomas Aquinas Bacon Descartes Hume Kant Nietzsche Dewey Berdyaev Einstein and Heidegger It pleads the urgent need to preserve the humanizing cultural ideals of the ancient classics against the modern tyranny of utility and the dangers of a new barbarism The Correspondence of Henrik Ibsen (Classic Reprint) Henrik Ibsen,2017-05-23 Excerpt from The Correspondence of Henrik Ibsen ON the 31st of May 1880 Henrik Ibsen wrote to his publisher Frederik Hegel that he had begun a little book in which he intended to give some account of the outward and inward conditions under which each one of his works had come into being letter It was to be called From Simian to Rome and was to give descriptions of his life at Skien and Grimstad Bergen and Christiania Dresden Munich and Rome About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Life of Christian Doctrine Mike Higton,2020-07-09 The lives of Christian churches are shaped by doctrinal theology That is they are shaped by practices in which ideas about God and God's ways with the world are developed discussed and deployed This book explores those practices and asks why they matter for communities seeking to follow Jesus Taking the example of the Church of England this book highlights the embodied affective and located reality of all doctrinal practices and the biases and exclusions that mar them It argues that doctrinal theology can in principle help the church know God better even though doctrinal theologians do not know God better than their fellow believers It claims that it can help the church to hear in Scripture challenges to its life including to its doctrinal theology It suggests that doctrinal disagreement is inevitable but that a better quality of doctrinal disagreement is possible And finally it argues that by encouraging attention to voices that have previously been ignored doctrinal theology can foster the ongoing discovery of God s surprising work

The Purposes of God G. Michael

Zbaraschuk,2015-06-29 The doctrine of providence is one that has fallen into theological oblivion in recent years How can the words God and history still be said in the same sentence This book surveys important contemporary attempts to talk about God and history examines why they haven't been successful and offers a contemporary doctrine of providence that is historically realistic adequate to religious experience and grounded in the Christian tradition The author draws on the philosophical orientation of Alfred North Whitehead and brings it into conversation with liberation and ecological theologies

Christianity and Classical Culture Jaroslav Pelikan, 1993-01-01 The momentous encounter between Christian thought and Greek philosophy reached a high point in fourth century Byzantium and the principal actors were four Greek speaking Christian thinkers whose collective influence on the Eastern Church was comparable to that of Augustine on Western Latin Christendom In this erudite and informative book a distinguished scholar provides the first coherent account of the lives and writings of these so called Cappadocians named for a region in what is now eastern Turkey showing how they managed to be Greek and Christian at the same time Jaroslav Pelikan describes the four Cappadocians Gregory of Nazianzus Basil of Caesarea Gregory of Nyssa and Macrina sister and teacher of the last two who were trained in Classical culture philosophy and rhetoric but who were also defenders and expositors of Christian orthodoxy On one issue of faith and life after another the nature of religious language the ways of knowing the existence of God the universe as cosmos time and space free will and immortality the nature of the good life the purpose of the universe they challenged and debated the validity of the Greek philosophical tradition in interpreting Scripture Because the way they resolved these issues became the very definition of normative Christian belief says Pelikan their system is still a key to our understanding not only of Christianity's diverse religious traditions but also of its intellectual and philosophical traditions This book is based on the prestigious Gifford Lectures presented by Jaroslav Pelikan at the University of Aberdeen in 1992 and 1993
